DAILY GAZETTE.

WHEN TO CUT A PIG YOKE.—The Rochester Daily Union relates the following anecdote of one of the most successful business men of this state,

When young he was a farmer, and at one time wished to hire a man for general farm work. It was not long before a hale and stalwart fellow presented himself as a candidate for the place: when the young farmer set about an examination of his qualifications. "Are you used to plowing?" "Oh yes; have followed the plow-tail for years." "Understand mowing and cradling?" "Perfectly: won't allow any man to beat me at it either." "Can you and would you be willing to help milk when it is too rainy for the women folks to go to the yard?" "Certainly: can milk a cow as quick as any gal on the premises: and expect to turn my hand to anything."—"Well—well—that's all very satisfactory; but there is just one thing more: do you know when is the best time to cut a pig yoke?" That was a stumper. Candidate scratched his head in deep thought for a moment and replied, "he was 'not quite sure; but he guessed the winter was the best time!"—"No, sir, that isn't it," said the young farmer. "You wont do for me; I wont have a man around me that dont know when to cut a pig yoke."

Candidates number two and number three presented themselves successively, and went through the same inquisitorial process triumphantly, until they came to the fatal question—"Do you know when is the best time to cut a pig yoke?" And on that they both failed—number two answering "the full moon in June:" and number three being decidedly of the opinion that the best time was "when the sap is out of the wood." Both were rejected.

Number four, like his predecessors, went through the "preliminary examination" swimmingly: when up comes the test question, "do you know when is the best time to cut a pig yoke?" Candidate hangs his head in a brown study; but after a little time for reflection, he answered in a half doubting, half confident tone: w-a-ll, that's a matter I never thought on much; but I should say the best time to cut a pid yoke was when you come across one!" That's it—that's it," quoth the farmer in delight; "you're the man for me." And he relates that that man always proved equal to any emergency in which he was placed.

PURCHASE OF A PAIR OF BOOTS IN NASHVILLE.—A writer in the Nashville (Tenn.) Patriot gives his experience in attempting to purchase a pair of sewed boots in that city, in the following words:

The owner of the shop took down from a peg a pair of stitch downs. I tried them on. I must do them the justice to say that they fitted me as handsomely as if my feet had been melted and poured into them. I determined to buy them, cost what they might. "Ill take these," said I, stamping my right violently on the floor, and taking a ten dollar bill from my vest pocket, "Take your pay out of that," said I, handing him the costly shinplaster. I really believe the individual who stood before me at that moment was the most thoroughly astonished bootmaker that I ever saw. He looked first at the money and then at me, turning alternately white and red, while his eyeballs protruded from their sockets as if they were being shoved outward by some hydraulic pressure within. At last, just as I was about to cry "fire," or run for the doctor, or something of the sort, he spoke: "You are from the country, ain't you?" I answered that I was. "I thought so," said he; "them boots is eighteen dollars!" I didn't say another word. I sat down and pulled off "them boots," more in sorrow than in anger, drew on my own, and walked out of the shop. The proprietor of the establishment must have taken me for the Prince of Wales, or the owner of the State Bank. Eighteen dollars for a pair of boots! I earnestly trust that posterity will not think me too particular about trifles, but I can't pay such prices.

A FATHER ATTEMPTS TO HANG HIS OWN CHILD.—A man named James Griner, residing on Providence street, returned to his home last evening considerably under the influence of liquor, and concluded to hang one of his children for amusement. Notwithstanding the entreaties of his wife, he fixed a rope about the child's neck, and, throwing it over a bedpost, choked the little sufferer till its tongue hung out. The mother screamed for assistance; but, seeing the danger of the child, and being wrought up to madness, seized a billet of wood, and, dealing the brutal husband and father a heavy blow on the head, stretched him senseless and bloody upon the floor. He was soon after secured and lodged in a station-house for the night.—Cin. Gazette, Nov. 9.

Marshal Kane is described as the most noticeable among the state prisoners at Fort Warren. He bustles about in a Scotch cap, with his pant legs within his boots, and by a stranger might be mistaken for the principal person of the garrison. He converses freely with the officers stationed at the fort, and evidently is not much discontented with his position.

WAR MATERIAL WITH THE FLEET.—It is stated that the naval expedition sailed with 300,000 musket balls, 50,000 buck and ball cartridges, 100,000 rifle cartridges, 200,000 percussion caps, 50,000 pounds of cannon powder, 5,000 pounds of musket powder, 1,000 hand grenades, and many other combustible and destructive materials to aid in carrying on a successful warfare.

A fight had occurred at Guaymas, Mexico, between the foreigners and natives. The American consul was in prison, and three Americans were shot. It is said that 300 Americans had put 500 Mexicans to flight.

AN ISSUE BETWEEN GEN. STONE AND COL. HINKS.—Gen. Stone issued an order reflecting with great severity on the report made by Col. Hinks, of the Massachusets nineteenth, upon the battle of Ball's Bluff.—Col. Hinks immediately wrote a letter recapitulating the positions taken in his report, and asking a court of inquiry.

Judge Dewey, of Boston, has decided that an enlistment by a man when drunk, is not binding—that enlisting in the government service is but a contract between the volunteer and the government, and implies a legal consent to the same, as to any other contract, which cannot be given in a state of intoxication. Recruiting officers will do well to remember this.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best, The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefiting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

DAILY GAZETTE.

WHEN TO CUT A PIG YOKE.—The Rochester Daily Union relates the following anecdote of one of the most successful business men of this state,

When young he was a farmer, and at one time wished to hire a man for general farm work. It was not long before a hale and stalwart fellow presented himself as a candidate for the place: when the young farmer set about an examination of his qualifications. "Are you used to plowing?" "Oh yes; have followed the plow-tail for years." "Understand mowing and cradling?" "Perfectly: won't allow any man to beat me at it either." "Can you and would you be willing to help milk when it is too rainy for the women folks to go to the yard?" "Certainly: can milk a cow as quick as any gal on the premises: and expect to turn my hand to anything."—"Well—well—that's all very satisfactory; but there is just one thing more: do you know when is the best time to cut a pig yoke?" That was a stumper. Candidate scratched his head in deep thought for a moment and replied, "he was not quite sure; but he guessed the winter was the best time!"—"No, sir, that isn't it," said the young farmer. "You wont do for me; I wont have a man around me that dont know when to cut a pig yoke."

Candidates number two and number three presented themselves successively, and went through the same inquisitorial process triumphantly, until they came to the fatal question—"Do you know when is the best time to cut a pig yoke?" And on that they both failed—number two answering "the full moon in June:" and number three being decidedly of the opinion that the best time was "when the sap is out of the wood." Both were rejected.

Number four, like his predecessors, went through the "preliminary examination" swimmingly: when up comes the test question, "do you know when is the best time to cut a pig yoke?" Candidate hangs his head in a brown study; but after a little time for reflection, he answered in a half doubting, half confident tone: w-a-ll, that's a matter I never thought on much; but I should say the best time to cut a pid yoke was when you come across one!" That's it—that's it," quoth the farmer in delight; "you're the man for me." And he relates that that man always proved equal to any emergency in which he was placed.

PURCHASE OF A PAIR OF BOOTS IN NASHVILLE.—A writer in the Nashville (Tenn.) Patriot gives his experience in attempting to purchase a pair of sewed boots in that city, in the following words:

The owner of the shop took down from a peg a pair of stitch downs. I tried them on. I must do them the justice to say that they fitted me as handsomely as if my feet had been melted and poured into them. I determined to buy them, cost what they might. "Ill take these," said I, stamping my right violently on the floor, and taking a ten dollar bill from my vest pocket, "Take your pay out of that," said I, handing him the costly shinplaster. I really believe the individual who stood before me at that moment was the most thoroughly astonished bootmaker that I ever saw. He looked first at the money and then at me, turning alternately white and red, while his eyeballs protruded from their sockets as if they were being shoved outward by some hydraulic pressure within. At last, just as I was about to cry "fire," or run for the doctor, or something of the sort, he spoke: "You are from the country, ain't you?" I answered that I was. "I thought so," said he; "them boots is eighteen dollars!" I didn't say another word. I sat down and pulled off "them boots," more in sorrow than in anger, drew on my own, and walked out of the shop. The proprietor of the establishment must have taken me for the Prince of Wales, or the owner of the State Bank. Eighteen dollars for a pair of boots! I earnestly trust that posterity will not think me too particular about trifles, but I can't pay such prices.

A FATHER ATTEMPTS TO HANG HIS OWN CHILD.—A man named James Griner, residing on Providence street, returned to his home last evening considerably under the influence of liquor, and concluded to hang one of his children for amusement. Notwithstanding the entreaties of his wife, he fixed a rope about the child's neck, and, throwing it over a bedpost, choked the little sufferer till its tongue hung out. The mother screamed for assistance; but, seeing the danger of the child, and being wrought up to madness, seized a billet of wood, and, dealing the brutal husband and father a heavy blow on the head, stretched him senseless and bloody upon the floor. He was soon after secured and lodged in a station-house for the night.—Cin. Gazette, Nov. 9.

Marshal Kane is described as the most noticeable among the state prisoners at Fort Warren. He bustles about in a Scotch cap, with his pant legs within his boots, and by a stranger might be mistaken for the principal person of the garrison. He converses freely with the officers stationed at the fort, and evidently is not much discontented with his position.

WAR MATERIAL WITH THE FLEET.—It is stated that the naval expedition sailed with 300,000 musket balls, 50,000 buck and ball cartridges, 100,000 rifle cartridges, 200,000 percussion caps, 50,000 pounds of cannon powder, 5,000 pounds of musket powder, 1,000 hand grenades, and many other combustible and destructive materials to aid in carrying on a successful warfare.

A fight had occurred at Guaymas, Mexico, between the foreigners and natives. The American consul was in prison, and three Americans were shot. It is said that 300 Americans had put 500 Mexicans to flight.

AN ISSUE BETWEEN GEN. STONE AND COL. HINKS.—Gen. Stone issued an order reflecting with great severity on the report made by Col. Hinks, of the Massachusets nineteenth, upon the battle of Ball's Bluff.—Col. Hinks immediately wrote a letter recapitulating the positions taken in his report, and asking a court of inquiry.

Judge Dewey, of Boston, has decided that an enlistment by a man when drunk, is not binding—that enlisting in the government service is but a contract between the volunteer and the government, and implies a legal consent to the same, as to any other contract, which cannot be given in a state of intoxication. Recruiting officers will do well to remember this.

GREAT REDUCTION

SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES,
Well known to be the best for
Manufacturing Purposes:
No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,
Reduced to $70.
No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,
Reduced to $75.
Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,
FIFTY DOLLARS.
The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.
Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under those machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.
We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.
We have always on hand
Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.
We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.
Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the GENUINE ARTICLE.
In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.
☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.
☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.
I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.
The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.
The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Monday Evening, Nov. 18, 1861.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us!
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Let us not be Afraid to be Just.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says:

If Fremont has been abused, either purposely or mistakenly, time will not only vindicate him, but will make him the most ample reparation that his ambition can desire. At present the nation cannot pause to quarrel over him.

If the nation is at war it is no reason that injustice should be done to any man, whether a high officer or a common soldier. When we conclude to carry on the war without reference to right or wrong we from that moment will fail. Our strength is in our righteous cause; and when the people are ready silently to submit to witness the trampling under foot of a General against whom no charge has been proven, but whose every act shows his patriotism, they are in a fit condition to be beaten ignominiously by the rebels, and enslaved by conspirators. It is because the people have not lost their virtue that they will "pause," not "to quarrel over" any man, but to insist that he shall have fair play. Though the enemy were thundering at our gates, fair play among ourselves would still be a jewel worth preserving. It is the right, of course, of those who choose, to stand by and see General Fremont sacrificed. If they should witness a hundred infuriated ruffians fall upon one man and beat him, they might possibly excuse their act of non-interference to themselves, but the judgment of the world would be against them. There was a case of this kind in the olden time, when a certain man fell among thieves, and the priest and Levite passed by on the other side, to avoid helping him. We have never heard the conduct of these men commended. They are regarded as models of selfishness which should be shunned, while the Samaritan who acted the part of a neighbor and friend to the unfortunate man, gave an example worthy to be followed.

It is true that time will vindicate Fremont, but when he is set upon by a host of enemies who rain falsehoods upon his head, it is then time that his friends, if he has any, should at least see that he has a fair field. The idea that we must not say a word in his favor, because that would condemn the administration, would excuse any abuse that might be committed by the government. The war must not prevent us from looking sharply into the acts of all engaged in it. The administration has itself set an example of such an investigation in the case of Fremont. They have had a report from their Adjutant General Thomas, on this subject, and instead of using it for their own private information, it has been published in the newspapers as a justification of their conduct towards Fremont. Now, if it is wrong, during the war, to get up an issue of this kind, who is worthy of censure? Who first appealed to the public through the press? Those who did it cannot expect to begin discussion and then denounce all who reply, as enemies of the government. Such a position would be so transparently wrong that no one can justify it. But even now, with the unfairness manifested in the publication of that report, together with the garbled and false statements purloined from the testimony of the investigating committee, the friends of Gen. Fremont would be willing to wait for the developments of time, "which at last sets all things even," if his enemies would do so; but they have not ceased their work, nor their denunciations through the public press. If the Sentinel and other papers which profess and recommend neutrality on this subject, would use their influence on such papers as the Chicago Tribune and prevail upon them to cease their warfare upon Fremont, we think they would effect their object much more speedily.

The nation will not quarrel over this Fremont matter, but it will think about it, and one of its present thoughts is, that it is not Fremont who is aimed at, but the principle of his proclamation. It is not that he has mismanaged the war worse than others against whom not a word has been uttered, but that he proposed to make the slaves of rebels free men. That is now the belief of the mass of the people,—time may cause them to reverse their judgment, but such is their present verdict.

WISCONSIN RAILROAD FARM MORTGAGES.—We presume it is not so generally understood, but one of the principal issues which entered into the recent state election in Wisconsin was the railroad farm mortgage question. This fact we have from a gentleman who knows of what he speaks. The repudiators to a man voted for Benjamin Ferguson, the Democratic candidate, in pursuance of a manifesto issued from the the "League," and for this reason, and owing to the political apathy in the state, Ferguson came very near being the successful candidate.—Chicago Tribune.

So far as this county is concerned, the Tribune is wrong. Some republican mortgagors, it is true, voted for Mr. Ferguson, but there were many others who voted for Mr. Harvey.

A requisition from Gov. Gamble, of Missouri, on Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, has been forwarded, in a view to return to the scene of his peculations, Watson the delinquent army contractor, now in custody at Pittsburg.

A Visit to St. Louis and Cairo.

Leaving Janesville on the 7th inst., by C. & N. W. R.R., I arrived in Chicago the same day, and the next morning embarked for St. Louis by the C., A. & St. Louis R. R., Mr. Vanduzer conductor. This road is well and substantially built, and supplied with first-class rolling stock; it passes through a fertile and beautiful section of country, dotted along the line with thriving cities and villages. We stopped at Bloomington for dinner; here there was assembled several thousand persons to welcome Col. Mulligan, who was on the train from St. Louis. The reception was one that spoke volumes for the loyalty and earnestness of the people, and their desire to honor the brave defender of Lexington. We arrived at St. Louis about 9 o'clock P. M.—This city wears a military appearance; in the upper portion of it the government is building a number of staunch tug boats, and at the lower part there is in course of construction four large iron clad gun boats. One of these is of very large dimensions, and all are to be proof against shot and shell. Their armament will be the heaviest and most powerful used by the navy, as they are intended to destroy the batteries of the rebels on the lower Mississippi. The whole fleet will be commanded by Commodore Foot of the navy. The Benton Barracks are situated about three miles west of the city, directly west of and adjoining the fair grounds. They occupy 320 acres of land for a parade ground, the barracks being built on the north and south sides of the same, and are capable of accommodating 20,000 troops.

There was a general review of the troops on Sunday, by Generals Curtis and Strong. The display was fine; there being nearly 2,000 cavalry and 4,000 infantry, and two full batteries of artillery. The amount of military stores, wagons, horses, mules, &c., is immense, and shows that there has been a great amount of labor performed at this place. At the arsenal a large force of men were engaged in manufacturing round shot, shell, grape and cannister. There are over 100 large rifled cannon inside the enclosure, varying from 24 to 120 pounders.

Gen. Prentiss returned here on Saturday with over 30 prisoners taken in the northern part of the state, who were placed in the arsenal. The general stated that the rebels in that section were quiet, and had ceased to molest railroad trains. He is a plain, unpretending officer, making no display of servants or gaudy equipage, not even wearing a sword when he was in the city. He has about 7,000 troops under his command, and has succeeded in quieting nearly all of the northern part of Missouri. He told me that he assured the people everywhere that if they were loyal they would not be interfered with, if not they would get a large share of what Jim. Lane promised them a little of.

Leaving St. Louis on Monday the 11th, at 1 o'clock P. M. by the O. & M. R. R. I proceeded to Odin, thence by I. C. R. R. to Cairo, where I arrived early next morning. At this place and also at Bird's Point on the west side of the river, and Fort Holt on the Kentucky side, there are constructed strong fortifications which are well supplied with heavy armaments of artillery. A force of 20,000 troops is stationed here, consisting of Infantry, Cavalry and Field Artillery. At Cairo they have barracks constructed for winter quarters, at Fort Holt the troops were constructing them, and at Bird's Point they were to commence them at an early day.

A touching incident came under my observation while at Fort Holt. A middle aged and apparently well to-do farmer from the central part of Illinois had learned that his son, belonging to one of the regiments stationed there, was very sick, and he had come to visit him. As soon as he arrived at the landing he enquired for his son; at the same time four soldiers passed him with a coffin which he was told was for his son who had died that morning. He followed them to their camp where the corpse was placed in the coffin, and with sad hearts and muffled drums they conveyed their dead companion to the boat, where the bereaved father took charge of it, to convey to his home.

On Tuesday the 12th a boat with a flag of truce was sent down to Columbus and brought up the wounded of the Belmont battle. A sight of these unfortunate persons was enough to show the horrors of war. Nearly all of them had lost a limb and some of them had severe wounds besides. On the same day the expedition sent out under the command of Col. Oglesby to assist in capturing Jeff Thompson returned, having gone no farther than Bloomfield. They found Jeff was too fleet for them being, as at Pilot Knob, a good runner. The soldiers gave many amusing incidents that occurred during their trip.

They were allowed considerable liberty with the property of those known to be rebels and they lived well generally. One day when they had halted for the night they were forbidden to take anything except some fowls which they started in pursuit of. One sturdy German returned with a fine fat sheep; on being questioned by the Colonel why he disobeyed orders stated that he was unable to catch any fowls, and that he considered the sheep of as much value to the hungry as a goose or a turkey, and therefore he had brought him along. The Colo did not see the point in the logic, but acquiessced in the conclusion.

Taylor's battery of field artillery was encamped at Bird's Point. A part of this company were engaged at the battle of Fredericktown and Pilot Knob, and the whole company was at the battle of Belmont, where they were engaged over six hours in one of the fiercest battles yet fought, within range of the enemy's rifled guns at Columbus. On their retreat they were compelled to pass through a raking cross fire of the enemy; yet they did not lose a man, and brought off all their guns, and two belonging to the enemy. Their guns and caissons bore evidence of a severe conflict. One wheel was struck by a cannon ball which cut the tire and felloe entirely off; one of the caissons was struck in several places by grape and cannister shot. Several of the men lost limbs, and some were otherwise wounded, but they were brought off by their companions, every one reaching their camp alive.

The artillery force opposed to them was the famous New Orleans battery, the crack company of the rebels, which was supported by nearly 4,000 of their oldest and best drilled infantry, armed with Springfield rifles. They probably are the same guns sent by Floyd south last winter; they were manufactured to defend this government against foreign foes, but are now used to shoot down the very men who are endeavoring to sustain it.

The Union forces captured one hundred and sixty rebel prisoners at Belmont.—They were kept on one of the large steamers, and upon the invitation of a chaplain, I visited them; they were principally from Memphis and had been in service over six months. About one half of them were hard looking specimens of humanity; the other half would compare favorably with mankind generally. Some that I conversed with were intelligent, and deprecated the war, denouncing the ring leaders of the rebellion in the most emphatic terms. They said the people generally were sick of the war and would be glad to stop it, if they were not led on by the hot-headed secessionists and political tricksters who had got control, by being in power under the general government.

Leaving Cairo Wednesday morning, via the Illinois Central railroad, with a "pass" out of the city, which all visitors are required to obtain, I arrived home Thursday evening, well repaid for the time and expenses incident to the trip.

A general statement of the condition and wants of the sick and wounded will be made to-morrow. My main object in this visit was to acquire information upon this important subject. W.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.

Gen. Hunter and staff arrived by to-night's train. He has ordered Gen. Curtis to remove Col. McNeil from his position as provost marshal and to appoint a substitute.—It is understood Chas. F. Cady will be appointed, though McNeil's assistant, Capt. Leighton, is favorably mentioned.

The government agent named Digby, lately arrested on the Missouri river packet Thomas Tuft, has been released and arrived here safely.

It is said that a majority of the Camp Jackson prisoners exchanged for Mulligan's men are already in the rebel service. A question is raised before the exchanging commissioners whether men who have violated their parole are included in the arrangement between Fremont and Price.

CAIRO, Nov. 15.

There has nothing of importance transpired here to day, with the exception of the arrival of three secession officers, of Camp Jackson notoriety, on their way to the Southern Confederacy. Their names are Capt. O. G. Barrett, Lieut. E. Blennerhasset, and Lieut. Chas. Wyman, of the Missouri State Guards.

Our missing men of the Belmont fight still continue to come in.

FT. MONROE, Nov. 16.

A flag of truce went to Norfolk, obtaining no papers.

Several gun-boats have gone to Newport News.

The rebels have assembled in considerable force at Great Bethel.

An attack on Newport News is not improbable. The recent fire at Norfolk consumed a large quantity of valuable stores, including nearly the entire supply of oil.

The steamer Spaulding will leave for Hatteras to-night, towing two vessels loaded with frame houses for troops.

LEAVENWORTH, Nov. 16.

Gen. Lane's command was expected at Fort Scott on the evening of the 14th.

A doubtful rumor says there was a force of 1,000 rebels at Bawers Mills, 50 miles from Fort Scott.

The creating of the new military department of Kansas, with Maj. Gen. Hunter in command, gives great satisfaction and confidence to the citizens of Kansas.

The recent election in this state resulted in the choice of Topeka as the state capital.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.

Capt. Taylor, who has arrived here with dispatches, reports that when the San Jacinto stopped at Cienfuegos, the escape of Slidell and Mason was ascertained. Proceeding thence to Havana, it was understood they had taken passage on the 7th inst., on the British mail steamer Trent, plying between Vera Cruz, by way of Havana and St. Thomas, and Southampton.

While the San Jacinto was in the narrowest part of the Bahama channel, about twenty-four miles to the westward, she met the packet, and as usual in such cases, fired a shot across her bow, and brought her to.

Two boats were sent to her, under command of Lieut. Fairfax, who, boarding the packet, arrested Mason and Slidell, who were personally known to him. They at first objected to being removed without the employment of force for this purpose.—However, they were soon after removed without further trouble, and conveyed to the San Jacinto. Their respective secretaries, Eustis and McFarlan, were brought on board, and are now on their way to New York.

The packet had no other save her own flag. The remainder of her passengers, including the ladies connected with the Slidell and Mason party, were not molested, and were therefore left free to pursue their journey.

Official dispatches are voluminous, and include several accounts of the capture, together with a protest of Mason and Slidell against being taken from a British ship.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.

A recent letter to the Charleston Mercury says the iron sheeting made for the Merimac has proved worthless under trial.

FORT MONROE, Nov. 16.

Slidell had his wife and four children aboard, who were allowed to proceed to Europe. Com. Wilkes had an interview with Gen. Wool who expressed the opinion that he did right,—and who said that right or wrong these men had to be secured, and if he had done wrong, the government could do no more than cashier him for it.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.

A special despatch says there is reason to believe that the government adheres to its determination to make Beaufort an open port. The Treasury Department emphatically denies that counterfeit treasury notes have been put into circulation. Last night was the coldest of the season in camp.

The 11th and 14th regiments United States infantry are to be hutted during the winter at Perrysville, Md; sixteen hundred troops will thus be quartered and form a camp of instruction; eight hundred are there already.

The intelligence of the capture of Slidell and Mason has diffused the greatest possible joy among all classes, including of course government officers from the President down. The brilliant exploit at Port Royal was certainly not more if quite as electric in its effects upon the public mind as the taking of the generally regarded unprincipled and dangerous emmissaries.

NAVY DEPARTMENT WASHINGTON, November, 16.

SIR:—It is with no ordinary emotion that I tender to you and your command the heartfelt congratulations and thanks of the government and the country for the brilliant success achieved at Port Royal in the war now raging against the government, in this most causeless and unnatural rebellion that ever afflicted a country. High hopes have been indulged in the Navy and great confidence reposed in its efforts. The result of the skill and bravery of yourself and others have equalled and surpassed our highest expectations. To you and your associates, under the providence of God, we are indebted for this great achievement by the largest squadron every fitted out under the flag which you have so gallantly vindicated and which you will bear onward to continued success. On the reception of your despatches, announcing the victory at Port Royal, the department issued the enclosed general order, which, with this letter, you will cause to be read to your command. I am your obedient servant.

GIDEON WELLES.

To Flag Officer SAMUEL F DUPONT commanding Atlantic blockading squadron.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.

Gen. Denver, of California, left to day for Leavenworth, to report to General Hunter.

All is quiet along the Potomac to day.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 17.

A slight snow—the first of the season—fell this morning.

The Mount Sterling Whig has a report from Thomas Turner, one of Gen. Nelson's aids, relative to the Piketon engagement. He says: "At Prestonburg the federal army divided into two columns, one under Colonel Sile via Johns creek, the other met the enemy by another route at Ivy creek. The latter had a sharp engagement for one hour and twenty minutes, routing the rebels, killing six and wounding twenty-four. The rebels reported to Unionists that they had lost from 200 to 300, of whom forty were killed and about sixty wounded."—Another account says the federals lost six killed and seventeen wounded. The previous accounts from Cincinnati appears to have been exaggerated.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.

London market—Wheat upward tendency and advanced 1s per 92.

The Times exposes Lord Lyon's bad grammer in his letters to Mr. Seward. It says the English side was argued exceedingly ill, and the American side with much ability, but the only result is to entirely convince us that in their own showing the acts of the American government have been illegal as regards American citizens, and violations of the rights of nations as regards foreigners.

The London Herald says Lord Lyons has exposed England to rebuff without the right to resent it. The Herald then attacks Earl Russell for impertinence in lecturing on the American Constitution, and quietly enduring robbery and outrage, and says he will find he has drifted on war. Seward has wantonly added another to the many differences which he wishes perpetuated between the two countries.

The Daily News thinks the course pursued by the government premature, indiscreet and inconsiderate. It was reported that the American bankers were holding out liberal commissions to English financiers to place a portion of the federal loan in London. The London Journal points out danger of tendering it.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

MADISON, Nov. 18.

The 11th regiment will leave Madison for Missouri on Wednesday next.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.

World's dispatch.—Gen. Sumner has not yet been assigned to any command, but in view of his long experience and service in California, Gen. McClellan who was formerly a captain under him, will detail him immediately to some responsible post.

Soon after the announcement was made of the contemplated interposition by England, France and Spain in Mexican affairs, our government dispatched a ship of war, commanded by an experienced officer, to the gulf to look after our interests. Another vessel was also despatched up the coast to Tampico, to prevent the transit of passengers from the rebel government across that country, and also to prevent the shipment of cotton, &c., from the rebel states. This wise precaution, it is said, has suddenly put a stop to an extensive traffic which was about being inaugurated. At about the same time, Secretary Seward sent a respectful communication to England, France and Spain, respecting the alleged intervention of these governments into the affairs of Mexico, but to last advices from Europe, no satisfactory answer has been received by our government. They appear to be quibbiing upon this matter, and seem disinclined to state their real objects and designs. Our government is keeping a most vigilant watch, and will not permit this formidable European combination to make any advances or aggression on this continent.

FT. MONROE, Nov. 17.

Our naval force at Newport News has been increased, in order to check the rebel expedition fitting out in James river, of which three formidable fire-boats are said to form a part.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.

By the Cosmopolitan, from Havana, we learn that Mr. Savage, U. S. vice consul at Havana, who had been to Key West and returned on the 10th inst., reports 1,500 rebel troops were discovered by the Union patrol some 200 rods from the fort on Santa Rosa island. The patrol immediately informed the commander of the fleet, who sent a force and shelled them off the island with great loss. Their object was to get together some 5,000 or more rebels and make another night attack on Wilson's Zouaves. The greatest vigilance is exercised by the commander of the Zouaves.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.

Tribune's dispatch.—The Heintzelman pickets extend to Occatince Creek, down the river. No rebels have been seen by them since the reconnoisance. The president has appointed Lieut. Henry A. Wise, of the navy, acting chief of the bureau of ordnance and hydregrapher in the navy department during the temporary absence of Capt. A. Harwood.

It is not believed at headquarters that any considerable number of troops have withdrawn from the rebel army opposite Washington in consequence of the invasion of South Carolina.

Beauregard has not gone to Charleston, as reported. The rumor however, which imputes to him an inclination to resign, unless a more vigorous policy be adopted in the conduct of the war, is not without foundation. On Saturday morning our guns at Budd's ferry sent 13 shells among the rebels, behind Shipping Point battery, driving them from the fortification.

This afternoon 500 seamen, under command of Wainwright, took the cars for Cairo, where they will join Com. Foote's flotilla.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 18.

The steamer Georgia arrived this morning from Newton, Worcester county, Maryland. Four hundred federal troops were preparing to go into Virginia on their way up the Pomoke. A boat was sent ashore with Dix's proclamation. It was read to a large number of Virginians in a farm house, who declared it entirely satisfactory, and claimed protection of the government from secessionists, who were forcing them into the rebel ranks against their will. The gun-boat Resolute had been giving them protection through the day, but at night they would have to seek shelter in the woods. Nothing new from Fortress Monroe. All quiet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 13th gives the names of 13 hostages, to await the result of the trial of the pirates at the north. They are Cols. Corcoran, Lee, Cogswell, Wilcox, Woodruff and Neff; Majors Potter, Cevere and Vodges; Capts. Rockwood, Bowman and Keffer.

The cargo of the steamer, said to have arrived at Savannah, consisted of 10 rifled cannon, 28,000 stand of arms and a large assorted cargo of medicines, clothing, blankets, &c. The vessel cost £38,000 and is regarded as unsurpassed in speed. Her commander is J. D. Bullock, formerly of the U. S. Navy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.

The Times says: We have reliable information that when the news of the capture of Port Royal reached the Confederate camp at Manassas, three South Carolina regiments demanded permission to return at once to the protection of their own state. Orders were issued from headquarters to prevent their departure at all hazards. The declaration of state sovereignty, and of the right of secession, does not seem to find as much favor with the Confederate authorities as at the outset of rebellion.

The Herald says the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th regiments of New Jersey, forming the 2d New Jersey Brigade, have been ordered to Annapolis, from whence they proceed to pollute the sacred soil of South Carolina.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.

Flour market less active but without decided change. Wheat receipts 217,018 bu. Market shade better with fair export demand; sales 100,000 bu at 1,26a1,27 for Chicago spring; 1,28a1,31 for Milwaukee club.

Suggestions to Good Samaritans.

HOSPITAL 13th. REGIMENT, CAMP TREDWAY, Nov. 18

To those who are anxious and willing to contribute to the relief of soldiers in hospital, it may be well to suggest that there is at present a want of blankets and comfortables. A few pairs of socks would not come amiss. A few pieces of old carpet would be a great addition to the parlors, as it is imprudent to wet the rough floors sufficiently to keep them clean.

In bringing eatables do not all bring jellies, as it will be difficult to transport them, besides dried and fresh fruits are much better for the sick. Dried fruits, of the smaller varieties, very acceptable now, will doubtless be doubly so hereafter.

Finally, do not often enter the hospital unless you can be of service, or by permission of one of the surgeons; and when you do enter spend your time in cheering up the boys rather than weeping and wringing your hands, or you will do more harm than good.

Donations to the hospital will be received at the office tent in front of the hospital. The patients are all doing well.

The donation of various articles by Mrs. J. B. Crosby and of fresh apples by Mrs. Webster, were very welcome.

In behalf of the sick, S. S. W.

ANOTHER ENTERTAINMENT.—A company of the "Campbells" will give a concert at Lappin's Hall Wednesday evening. See their advertisement.

THE LEGISLATURE.—The Madison Journal makes the following classification of the members of the next legislature:

SENATE—Republicans 21, democrats 11. One district to hear from.

ASSEMBLY—Straight republicans 41; straight democrats 33; Union 24. Of the "Union" members, 17 out of 23 are of democratic antecedents. There are three districts yet to hear from, to-wit: Douglas, La Pointe, &c.; Eau Claire, Chippewa and Dunn; Trempeleau, Pepin and Buffalo.—In each of these districts the chances are in favor of the republicans.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE AGAIN ON "BOGUS REPORTS."—The Chicago Tribune discredits the report that Gen. Hunter gave permission to the owners of slaves to search through our camps for ther runaway chattels, and reclaim them if found. It adds:

"For his honor, and the honor of the service, we hope the General has been grossly belied; and that the dispatch which asserts his willingness to see men dragged as slaves from the shadow of the American flag flying at the head of American soldiers, is bogus—the work of the "gang" who of late have so industriously been employed in deluding and humbugging the public."

No doubt the Tribune does "hope" that the report is "bogus," as it characterizes everything from this state, which does not square with its own reckless assertions; but, nevertheless, it is true to the letter.—In numerous instances Gen. Hunter's Adjutant, by the direct orders of the General himself, gave written permission to bereaved slave owners in Springfield to hunt through our camps for their negroes: and armed with this permission, many of them were searching through the various commands on Friday and Saturday, before the withdrawal of our troops from Springfield. —St. Louis Democrat.

AN IMPORTANT AND COSTLY LAW SUIT SETTLED.—A settlement has been made with Louis Robert, who has been in litigation with the city of St. Paul for some time in reference to a piece of property claimed by him, and known as the lower landing, by which the city issues bonds to him for $5,000 and remits $1,000 of his back taxes, in consideration of a quitclaim from Robert of the levee property claimed by him. The costs that have accrued in this suit, with the amount paid by the city in the settlement of this claim, will not fall short of about $20,000.—St. Paul Pioneer, Nov. 9th.

Eight companies are reported full for the 16th regiment, and two nearly full.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

HOSPITAL AT WHEELING.—Gen. Rosecranz has given an order and the necessary instructions for the establishment of a general hospital at Wheeling—a much needed institution in Western Virginia. The Intelligencer states that the Government has rented the hotel known as the Sprigg House for the hospital.

Among the recent deaths in the army of the Potomac is recorded that of Abner A. Wheeler, 7th Wisconsin, at the hospital for eruptive fevers; and that of W. Kumley, 6th Wisconsin, Co. G, at Columbia College Hospital.

The cash operations of the treasury department for four weeks in October were $92,834,442. Last year it was less than $9,000,000. Over $19,000,000 were paid over the counter—thirteen times as much as last year. On one day last week, 1,750,000 were paid over the counter, and on each of several others over $1,000,000 more: The present demand was on account of two months pay of troops.

Miss Ella Poole of Wheeling was arrested some time since as a rebel informer, and while the officers were guarding the house, at night, she escaped by a back window. In consequence of this the mother and sisters were arrested as accessories.—Miss Poole has now been arrested at Louisville, and is on her way to Washinston.

The estate of John A. Washington has been placed in charge of Commander Lee, of the United States Navy.

A drum is on exhibtion at Chicago captured from the rebels of Texas county, Mo. The shell of the drum was formely a gum tree bee-hive. The heads are raw hide, and the fastenings bed-cords, with strips from old boot legs, It is no doubt a fair rival of the serpent skin drum heads of the Aztecs.

ARREST OF A CLERGYMAN.—Great excitement was caused in Elkton, Md., on Sunday, by the arrest of Rev. Mr. Mitchell, pastor of the Episcopal church in that town. He was apprehended by a national officer just as he was about commencing the morning service. Secession sympathies injudicsously manifested were the causes of the arrest.

The Cincinnati Commercial says there are now at Camps Dennison, Gurley and Dick Corwine, all in the vicinity of that city, six thousand infantry, two thousand cavalry, and five batteries of field artillery.

GOOD FOR GOV. HICKS.—A special session of the legislature of Maryland is to be called by Gov. Hicks, to undo the rebel legislation of last spring, to enact a new police law, and to put the state full and square on the Union platform.

JUDGE DOUGLAS' FURNITURE.—The furniture of Judge Douglas will be sold at auction, in Washington, on the 18th inst., as his house, with those adjoining, has been rented for hospital purposes. Mrs. Douglass is still at Washington, residing with her father.

A COMPARISON.—T. W. Higginson, of Worcester, Mass. has certainly invented a new comparison. He says that it is as absurd to attempt to carry on the war without striking at slavery, as it would be to storm hell without interfering with the personal comfort of Satan.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Jayne's Ague Mixture
Is an infallible remedy for Fever and Ague. The experience of many years in almost every climate proves that where used strictly in accordance with the directions, it has rarely failed to cure,—not only by breaking up the chills, but by removing the morbid habits of the system, preventing a recurrence of the disease.
Fever and Ague, though not in itself dangerous, is apt, unless speedily removed, to have such a pernicious effect on the system, as to engender disorders much more baneful than itself, and which not only render the afterlife of the patient miserable, but are in themselves often fatal. A prompt and effectual remedy is therefore what is wanted, and as such DR. D. JAYNE'S AGUE MIXTURE is confidently recommended For sale by

City of Janesville.

Monday Evening, Nov. 18, 1861.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Let us not be Afraid to be Just.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says:

If Fremont has been abused, either purposely or mistakenly, time will not only vindicate him, but will make him the most ample reparation that his ambition can desire. At present the nation cannot pause to quarrel over him.

If the nation is at war it is no reason that injustice should be done to any man, whether a high officer or a common soldier. When we conclude to carry on the war without reference to right or wrong we from that moment will fail. Our strength is in our righteous cause; and when the people are ready silently to submit to witness the trampling under foot of a General against whom no charge has been proven, but whose every act shows his patriotism, they are in a fit condition to be beaten ignominiously by the rebels, and enslaved by conspirators. It is because the people have not lost their virtue that they will "pause," not "to quarrel over" any man, but to insist that he shall have fair play. Though the enemy were thundering at our gates, fair play among ourselves would still be a jewel worth preserving. It is the right, of course, of those who choose, to stand by and see General Fremont sacrificed. If they should witness a hundred infuriated ruffians fall upon one man and beat him, they might possibly excuse their act of non-interference to themselves, but the judgment of the world would be against them. There was a case of this kind in the olden time, when a certain man fell among thieves, and the priest and Levite passed by on the other side, to avoid helping him. We have never heard the conduct of these men commended. They are regarded as models of selfishness which should be shunned, while the Samaritan who acted the part of a neighbor and friend to the unfortunate man, gave an example worthy to be followed.

It is true that time will vindicate Fremont, but when he is set upon by a host of enemies who rain falsehoods upon his head, it is then time that his friends, if he has any, should at least see that he has a fair field. The idea that we must not say a word in his favor, because that would condemn the administration, would excuse any abuse that might be committed by the government. The war must not prevent us from looking sharply into the acts of all engaged in it. The administration has itself set an example of such an investigation in the case of Fremont. They have had a report from their Adjutant General Thomas, on this subject, and instead of using it for their own private information, it has been published in the newspapers as a justification of their conduct towards Fremont. Now, if it is wrong, during the war, to get up an issue of this kind, who is worthy of censure? Who first appealed to the public through the press? Those who did it cannot expect to begin discussion and then denounce all who reply, as enemies of the government. Such a position would be so transparently wrong that no one can justify it. But even now, with the unfairness manifested in the publication of that report, together with the garbled and false statements purloined from the testimony of the investigating committee, the friends of Gen. Fremont would be willing to wait for the developments of time, "which at last sets all things even," if his enemies would do so; but they have not ceased their work, nor their denunciations through the public press. If the Sentinel and other papers which profess and recommend neutrality on this subject, would use their influence on such papers as the Chicago Tribune and prevail upon them to cease their warfare upon Fremont, we think they would effect their object much more speedily.

The nation will not quarrel over this Fremont matter, but it will think about it, and one of its present thoughts is, that it is not Fremont who is aimed at, but the principle of his proclamation. It is not that he has mismanaged the war worse than others against whom not a word has been uttered, but that he proposed to make the slaves of rebels free men. That is now the belief of the mass of the people,—time may cause them to reverse their judgment, but such is their present verdict.

WISCONSIN RAILROAD FARM MORTGAGES.—We presume it is not so generally understood, but one of the principal issues which entered into the recent state election in Wisconsin was the railroad farm mortgage question. This fact we have from a gentleman who knows of what he speaks. The repudiators to a man voted for Benjamin Ferguson, the Democratic candidate, in pursuance of a manifesto issued from the the "League," and for this reason, and owing to the political apathy in the state, Ferguson came very near being the successful candidate.—Chicago Tribune.

So far as this county is concerned, the Tribune is wrong. Some republican mortgagors, it is true, voted for Mr. Ferguson, but there were many others who voted for Mr. Harvey.

A requisition from Gov. Gamble, of Missouri, on Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, has been forwarded, in a view to return to the scene of his peculations, Watson the delinquent army contractor, now in custody at Pittsburg.

A Visit to St. Louis and Cairo.

Leaving Janesville on the 7th inst., by C. & N. W. R.R., I arrived in Chicago the same day, and the next morning embarked for St. Louis by the C., A. & St. Louis R. R., Mr. Vanduzer conductor. This road is well and substantially built, and supplied with first-class rolling stock; it passes through a fertile and beautiful section of country, dotted along the line with thriving cities and villages. We stopped at Bloomington for dinner; here there was assembled several thousand persons to welcome Col. Mulligan, who was on the train from St. Louis. The reception was one that spoke volumes for the loyalty and earnestness of the people, and their desire to honor the brave defender of Lexington. We arrived at St. Louis about 9 o'clock P. M.—This city wears a military appearance; in the upper portion of it the government is building a number of staunch tug boats, and at the lower part there is in course of construction four large iron clad gun boats. One of these is of very large dimensions, and all are to be proof against shot and shell. Their armament will be the heaviest and most powerful used by the navy, as they are intended to destroy the batteries of the rebels on the lower Mississippi. The whole fleet will be commanded by Commodore Foot of the navy. The Benton Barracks are situated about three miles west of the city, directly west of and adjoining the fair grounds. They occupy 320 acres of land for a parade ground, the barracks being built on the north and south sides of the same, and are capable of accommodating 20,000 troops.

There was a general review of the troops on Sunday, by Generals Curtis and Strong. The display was fine; there being nearly 2,000 cavalry and 4,000 infantry, and two full batteries of artillery. The amount of military stores, wagons, horses, mules, &c., is immense, and shows that there has been a great amount of labor performed at this place. At the arsenal a large force of men were engaged in manufacturing round shot, shell, grape and cannister. There are over 100 large rifled cannon inside the enclosure, varying from 24 to 120 pounders.

Gen. Prentiss returned here on Saturday with over 30 prisoners taken in the northern part of the state, who were placed in the arsenal. The general stated that the rebels in that section were quiet, and had ceased to molest railroad trains. He is a plain, unpretending officer, making no display of servants or gaudy equipage, not even wearing a sword when he was in the city. He has about 7,000 troops under his command, and has succeeded in quieting nearly all of the northern part of Missouri. He told me that he assured the people everywhere that if they were loyal they would not be interfered with, if not they would get a large share of what Jim. Lane promised them a little of.

Leaving St. Louis on Monday the 11th, at 4 o'clock P. M. by the O. & M. R. R. I proceeded to Odin, thence by I. C. R. R. to Cairo, where I arrived early next morning. At this place and also at Bird's Point on the west side of the river, and Fort Holt on the Kentucky side, there are constructed strong fortifications which are well supplied with heavy armaments of artillery. A force of 20,000 troops is stationed here, consisting of Infantry, Cavalry and Field Artillery. At Cairo they have barracks constructed for winter quarters, at Fort Holt the troops were constructing them, and at Bird's Point they were to commence them at an early day.

A touching incident came under my observation while at Fort Holt. A middle aged and apparently well-to-do farmer from the central part of Illinois had learned that his son, belonging to one of the regiments stationed there, was very sick, and he had come to visit him. As soon as he arrived at the landing he enquired for his son; at the same time four soldiers passed him with a coffin which he was told was for his son who had died that morning. He followed them to their camp where the corpse was placed in the coffin, and with sad hearts and muffled drums they conveyed their dead companion to the boat, where the bereaved father took charge of it, to convey to his home.

On Tuesday the 12th a boat with a flag of truce was sent down to Columbus and brought up the wounded of the Belmont battle. A sight of these unfortunate persons was enough to show the horrors of war. Nearly all of them had lost a limb and some of them had severe wounds besides. On the same day the expedition sent out under the command of Col. Oglesby to assist in capturing Jeff Thompson returned, having gone no farther than Bloomfield. They found Jeff was too fleet for them being, as at Pilot Knob, a good runner. The soldiers gave many amusing incidents that occurred during their trip.

They were allowed considerable liberty with the property of those known to be rebels and they lived well generally. One day when they had halted for the night they were forbidden to take anything except some fowls which they started in pursuit of. One sturdy German returned with a fine fat sheep; on being questioned by the Colonel why he disobeyed orders stated that he was unable to catch any fowls, and that he considered the sheep of as much value to the hungry as a goose or a turkey, and therefore he had brought him along. The Colo did not see the point in the logic, but acquiessced in the conclusion.

Taylor's battery of field artillery was encamped at Bird's Point. A part of this company were engaged at the battle of Fredericktown and Pilot Knob, and the whole company was at the battle of Belmont, where they were engaged over six hours in one of the fiercest battles yet fought, within range of the enemy's rifled guns at Columbus. On their retreat they were compelled to pass through a raking cross fire of the enemy; yet they did not lose a man, and brought off all their guns, and two belonging to the enemy. Their guns and caissons bore evidence of a severe conflict. One wheel was struck by a cannon ball which cut the tire and felloe entirely off; one of the caissons was struck in several places by grape and cannister shot. Several of the men lost limbs, and some were otherwise wounded, but they were brought off by their companions, every one reaching their camp alive.

The artillery force opposed to them was the famous New Orleans battery, the crack company of the rebels, which was supported by nearly 4,000 of their oldest and best drilled infantry, armed with Springfield rifles. They probably are the same guns sent by Floyd south last winter; they were manufactured to defend this government against foreign foes, but are now used to shoot down the very men who are endeavoring to sustain it.

The Union forces captured one hundred and sixty rebel prisoners at Belmont.—They were kept on one of the large steamers, and upon the invitation of a chaplain, I visited them; they were principally from Memphis and had been in service over six months. About one half of them were hard looking specimens of humanity; the other half would compare favorably with mankind generally. Some that I conversed with were intelligent, and deprecated the war, denouncing the ring leaders of the rebellion in the most emphatic terms. They said the people generally were sick of the war and would be glad to stop it, if they were not led on by the hot-headed secessionists and political tricksters who had got control, by being in power under the general government.

Leaving Cairo Wednesday morning, via the Illinois Central railroad, with a "pass" out of the city, which all visitors are required to obtain, I arrived home Thursday evening, well repaid for the time and expenses incident to the trip.

A general statement of the condition and wants of the sick and wounded will be made to-morrow. My main object in this visit was to acquire information upon this important subject. W.

Last Night's Report.

ST. JOHNS, Nov. 6.

The City of Washington arrived off Cape Race.

Cotton dull with a downward tendency. Manchester advices unfavorable. Breadstuffs generally quiet and steady, except wheat, which has an upward tendency.—Flour quiet and steady. Corn easier.

A convention between France, England and Spain for intervention in Mexico, was signed in London on the 3d inst.

The London Times editorially condemns Secretary Seward's dispatches to Lord Lyons. It also ridicules Mr. Seward's manifesto to the governors of states.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.

Gen. Hunter and staff arrived by to-night's train. He has ordered Gen. Curtis to remove Col. McNeil from his position as provost marshal and to appoint a substitute.—It is understood Chas. F. Cady will be appointed, though McNeil's assistant, Capt. Leighton, is favorably mentioned.

The government agent named Digby, lately arrested on the Missouri river packet Thomas Tuft, has been released and arrived here safely.

It is said that a majority of the Camp Jackson prisoners exceanged for Mulligan's men are already in the rebel service. A question is raised before the exchanging commissioners whether men who have violated their parole are included in the arrangement between Fremont and Price.

CAIRO, Nov. 15.

There has nothing of importance transpired here to-day, with the exception of the arrival of three secession officers, of Camp Jackson notoriety, on their way to the Southern Confederacy. Their names are Capt. O. G. Barrett, Lieut. E. Blennerhasset, and Lieut. Chas. Wyman, of the Missouri State Guards.

Our missing men of the Belmont fight still continue to come in.

FT. MONROE, Nov. 16.

A flag of truce went to Norfolk, obtaining no papers.

Several gun-boats have gone to Newport News.

The rebels have assembled in considerable force at Great Bethel.

An attack on Newport News is not improbable. The recent fire at Norfolk consumed a large quantity of valuable stores, including nearly the entire supply of oil.

The steamer Spaulding will leave for Hatteras to-night, towing two vessels loaded with frame houses for troops.

LEAVENWORTH, Nov. 16.

Gen. Lane's command was expected at Fort Scott on the evening of the 14th.

A doubtful rumor says there was a force of 1,000 rebels at Bawers Mills, 50 miles from Fort Scott.

The creating of the new military department of Kansas, with Maj. Gen. Hunter in command, gives great satisfaction and confidence to the citizens of Kansas.

The recent election in this state resulted in the choice of Topeka as the state capital.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.

Capt. Taylor, who has arrived here with dispatches, reports that when the San Jacinto stopped at Cienfuegos, the escape of Slidell and Mason was ascertained. Proceeding thence to Havana, it was understood they had taken passage on the 7th inst., on the British mail steamer Trent, plying between Vera Cruz, by way of Havana and St. Thomas, and Southampton.

While the San Jacinto was in the narrowest part of the Bahama channel, about twenty-four miles to the westward, she met the packet, and as usual in such cases, fired a shot across her bow, and brought her to.

Two boats were sent to her, under command of Lieut. Fairfax, who, boarding the packet, arrested Mason and Slidell, who were personally known to him. They at first objected to being removed without the employment of force for this purpose.—However, they were soon after removed without further trouble, and conveyed to the San Jacinto. Their respective secretaries, Eustis and McFarlan, were brought on board, and are now on their way to New York.

The packet had no other save her own flag. The remainder of her passengers, including the ladies connected with the Slidell and Mason party, were not molested, and were therefore left free to pursue their journey.

Official dispatches are voluminous, and include several accounts of the capture, together with a protest of Mason and Slidell against being taken from a British ship.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.

A recent letter to the Charleston Mercury says the iron sheeting made for the Merimac has proved worthless under trial.

FORT MONROE, Nov. 16.

Slidell had his wife and four children aboard, who were allowed to proceed to Europe. Com. Wilkes had an interview with Gen. Wool who expressed the opinion that he did right,—and who said that right or wrong these men had to be secured, and if he had done wrong, the government could do no more than cashier him for it.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.

A special despatch says there is reason to believe that the government adheres to its determination to make Beaufort an open port. The Treasury Department emphatically denies that counterfeit treasury notes have been put into circulation. Last night was the coldest of the season in camp.

The 11th and 14th regiments United States infantry are to be hutted during the winter at Perrysville, Md; sixteen hundred troops will thus be quartered and form a camp of instruction; eight hundred are there already.

The intelligence of the capture of Slidell and Mason has diffused the greatest possible joy among all classes, including of course government officers from the President down. The brilliant exploit at Port Royal was certainly not more if quite as electric in its effects upon the public mind as the taking of the generally regarded unprincipled and dangerous emmissaries.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, November, 16.

SIR:—It is with no ordinary emotion that I tender to you and your command the heartfelt congratulations and thanks of the government and the country for the brilliant success achieved at Port Royal in the war now raging against the government, in this most causeless and unnatural rebellion that ever afflicted a country. High hopes have been indulged in the Navy and great confidence reposed in its efforts. The result of the skill and bravery of yourself and others have equalled and surpassed our highest expectations. To you and your associates, under the providence of God, we are indebted for this great achievement by the largest squadron every fitted out under the flag which you have so gallantly vindicated and which you will bear onward to continued success. On the reception of your despatches, announcing the victory at Port Royal, the department issued the enclosed general order, which, with this letter, you will cause to be read to your command. I am your obedient servant.

GIDEON WELLES.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.

Gen. Denver, of California, left to-day for Leavenworth, to report to General Hunter.

All is quiet along the Potomac to-day.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 17.

A slight snow—the first of the season—fell this morning.

The Mount Sterling Whig has a report from Thomas Turner, one of Gen. Nelson's aids, relative to the Piketon engagement. He says: "At Prestonburg the federal army divided into two columns, one under Colonel Sile via Johns creek, the other met the enemy by another route at Ivy creek. The latter had a sharp engagement for one hour and twenty minutes, routing the rebels, killing six and wounding twenty-four. The rebels reported to Unionists that they had lost from 200 to 300, of whom forty were killed and about sixty wounded."—Another account says the federals lost six killed and seventeen wounded. The previous accounts from Cincinnati appears to have been exaggerated.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.

London market—Wheat upward tendency and advanced 1s per 92.

The Times exposes Lord Lyon's bad grammer in his letters to Mr. Seward. It says the English side was argued exceedingly ill, and the American side with much ability, but the only result is to entirely convince us that in their own showing the acts of the American government have been illegal as regards American citizens, and violations of the rights of nations as regards foreigners.

The London Herald says Lord Lyons has exposed England to rebuff without the right to resent it. The Herald then attacks Earl Russell for impertinence in lecturing on the American Constitution, and quietly enduring robbery and outrage, and says he will find he has drifted on war. Seward has wantonly added another to the many differences which he wishes perpetuated between the two countries.

The Daily News thinks the course pursued by the government premature, indiscreet and inconsiderate. It was reported that the American bankers were holding out liberal commissions to English financiers to place a portion of the federal loan in London. The London Journal points out danger of tendering it.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

MADISON, Nov. 18.

The 11th regiment will leave Madison for Missouri on Wednesday next.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.

World's dispatch.—Gen. Sumner has not yet been assigned to any command, but in view of his long experience and service in California, Gen. McClellan who was formerly a captain under him, will detail him immediately to some responsible post.

Soon after the announcement was made of the contemplated interposition by England, France and Spain in Mexican affairs, our government dispatched a ship of war, commanded by an experienced officer, to the gulf to look after our interests. Another vessel was also despatched up the coast to Tampico, to prevent the transit of passengers from the rebel government across that country, and also to prevent the shipment of cotton, &c., from the rebel states. This wise precaution, it is said, has suddenly put a stop to an extensive traffic which was about being inaugurated. At about the same time, Secretary Seward sent a respectful communication to England, France and Spain, respecting the alleged intervention of these governments into the affairs of Mexico, but to last advices from Europe, no satisfactory answer has been received by our government. They appear to be quibbling upon this matter, and seem disinclined to state their real objects and designs. Our government is keeping a most vigilant watch, and will not permit this formidable European combination to make any advances or aggression on this continent.

FT. MONROE, Nov. 17.

Our naval force at Newport News has been increased, in order to check the rebel expedition fitting out in James river, of which three formidable fire-boats are said to form a part.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.

By the Cosmopolitan, from Havana, we learn that Mr. Savage, U. S. vice consul at Havana, who had been to Key West and returned on the 10th inst., reports 1,500 rebel troops were discovered by the Union patrol some 200 rods from the fort on Santa Rosa island. The patrol immediately informed the commander of the fleet, who sent a force and shelled them off the island with great loss. Their object was to get together some 5,000 or more rebels and make another night attack on Wilson's Zouaves. The greatest vigilance is exercised by the commander of the Zouaves.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.

Tribune's dispatch.—The Heintzelman pickets extend to Occatiuce Creek, down the river. No rebels have been seen by them since the reconnoisance. The president has appointed Lieut. Henry A. Wise, of the navy, acting chief of the bureau of ordnance and hydrographer in the navy department during the temporary absence of Capt. A. Harwood.

It is not believed at headquarters that any considerable number of troops have withdrawn from the rebel army opposite Washington in consequence of the invasion of South Carolina.

Beauregard has not gone to Charleston, as reported. The rumor however, which imputes to him an inclination to resign, unless a more vigorous policy be adopted in the conduct of the war, is not without foundation. On Saturday morning our guns at Budd's ferry sent 13 shells among the rebels, behind Shipping Point battery, driving them from the fortification.

This afternoon 500 seamen, under command of Wainwright, took the cars for Cairo, where they will join Com. Foote's flotilla.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 18.

The steamer Georgia arrived this morning from Newton, Worcester county, Maryland. Four hundred federal troops were preparing to go into Virginia on their way up the Pomoke. A boat was sent ashore with Dix's proclamation. It was read to a large number of Virginians in a farm house, who declared it entirely satisfactory, and claimed protection of the government from secessionists, who were forcing them into the rebel ranks against their will. The gun-boat Resolute had been giving them protection through the day, but at night they would have to seek shelter in the woods. Nothing new from Fortress Monroe. All quiet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 13th gives the names of 13 hostages, to await the result of the trial of the pirates at the north. They are Cols. Corcoran, Lee, Cogswell, Wilcox, Woodruff and Neff; Majors Potter, Cevere and Vodges; Capts. Rockwood, Bowman and Keffer.

The cargo of the steamer, said to have arrived at Savannah, consisted of 10 rifled cannon, 28,000 stand of arms and a large assorted cargo of medicines, clothing, blankets, &c. The vessel cost £38,000 and is regarded as unsurpassed in speed. Her commander is J. D. Bullock, formerly of the U. S. Navy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.

The Times says: We have reliable information that when the news of the capture of Port Royal reached the Confederate camp at Manassas, three South Carolina regiments demanded permission to return at once to the protection of their own state. Orders were issued from headquarters to prevent their departure at all hazards. The declaration of state sovereignty, and of the right of secession, does not seem to find as much favor with the Confederate authorities as at the outset of rebellion.

The Herald says the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th regiments of New Jersey, forming the 2d New Jersey Brigade, have been ordered to Annapolis, from whence they proceed to pollute the sacred soil of South Carolina.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.

Flour market less active but without decided change. Wheat receipts 217,048 bu. Market shade better, with fair export demand; sales 100,000 bu at 1,26a1,27 for Chicago spring; 1,28a1,31 for Milwaukee club.

Suggestions to Good Samaritans.

HOSPITAL 13th. REGIMENT, CAMP TREDWAY, Nov. 18.

To those who are anxious and willing to contribute to the relief of soldiers in hospital, it may be well to suggest that there is at present a want of blankets and comfortables. A few pairs of socks would not come amiss. A few pieces of old carpet would be a great addition to the parlors, as it is imprudent to wet the rough floors sufficiently to keep them clean.

In bringing eatables do not all bring jellies, as it will be difficult to transport them, besides dried and fresh fruits are much better for the sick. Dried fruits, of the smaller varieties, very acceptable now, will doubtless be doubly so hereafter.

Finally, do not often enter the hospital unless you can be of service, or by permission of one of the surgeons; and when you do enter spend your time in cheering up the boys rather than weeping and wringing your hands, or you will do more harm than good.

Donations to the hospital will be received at the office tent in front of the hospital. The patients are all doing well.

The donation of various articles by Mrs. J. B. Crosby and of fresh apples by Mrs. Webster, were very welcome.

In behalf of the sick, S. S. W.

ANOTHER ENTERTAINMENT—A company of the "Campbells" will give a concert at Lappin's Hall Wednesday evening. See their advertisement.

THE LEGISLATURE.—The Madison Journal makes the following classification of the members of the next legislature:

SENATE—Republicans 21, democrats 11. One district to hear from.

ASSEMBLY — Straight republicans 41; straight democrats 33; Union 24. Of the "Union" members, 17 out of 23 are of democratic antecedents. There are three districts yet to hear from, to-wit: Douglas, La Pointe, &c.; Eau Claire, Chippewa and Dunn; Trempeleau, Pepin and Buffalo.—In each of these districts the chances are in favor of the republicans.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE AGAIN ON "BOGUS REPORTS."—The Chicago Tribune discredits the report that Gen. Hunter gave permission to the owners of slaves to search through our camps for ther runaway chattels, and reclaim them if found. It adds:

"For his honor, and the honor of the service, we hope the General has been grossly belied; and that the dispatch which asserts his willingness to see men dragged as slaves from the shadow of the American flag flying at the head of American soldiers, is bogus—the work of the "gang" who of late have so industriously been employed in deluding and humbugging the public."

No doubt the Tribune does "hope" that the report is "bogus," as it characterizes everything from this state, which does not square with its own reckless assertions; but, nevertheless, it is true to the letter.—In numerous instances Gen. Hunter's Adjutant, by the direct orders of the General himself, gave written permission to bereaved slave owners in Springfield to hunt through our camps for their negroes: and armed with this permission, many of them were searching through the various commands on Friday and Saturday, before the withdrawal of our troops from Springfield. —St. Louis Democrat.

AN IMPORTANT AND COSTLY LAW SUIT SETTLED.—A settlement has been made with Louis Robert, who has been in litigation with the city of St. Paul for some time in reference to a piece of property claimed by him, and known as the lower landing, by which the city issues bonds to him for $5,000 and remits $1,000 of his back taxes, in consideration of a quitclaim from Robert of the levee property claimed by him. The costs that have accrued in this suit, with the amount paid by the city in the settlement of this claim, will not fall short of about $20,000.—St. Paul Pioneer, Nov. 9th.

Eight companies are reported full for the 16th regiment, and two nearly full.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

HOSPITAL AT WHEELING.—Gen. Rosecranz has given an order and the necessary instructions for the establishment of a general hospital at Wheeling—a much needed institution in Western Virginia. The Intelligencer states that the Government has rented the hotel known as the Sprigg House for the hospital.

Among the recent deaths in the army of the Potomac is recorded that of Abner A. Wheeler, 7th Wisconsin, at the hospital for eruptive fevers; and that of W. Kumley, 6th Wisconsin, Co. G, at Columbia College Hospital.

The cash operations of the treasury department for four weeks in October were $92,834,442. Last year it was less than $9,000,500. Over $19,000,000 were paid over the counter—thirteen times as much as last year. On one day last week, 1,750,000 were paid over the counter, and on each of several others over $1,000,000 more. The present demand was on account of two months pay of troops.

Miss Ella Poole of Wheeling was arrested some time since as a rebel informer, and while the officers were guarding the house, at night, she escaped by a back window. In consequence of this the mother and sisters were arrested as accessories.—Miss Poole has now been arrested at Louisville, and is on her way to Washinston.

The estate of John A. Washington has been placed in charge of Commander Lee, of the United States Navy.

A drum is on exhibtion at Chicago captured from the rebels of Texas county, Mo. The shell of the drum was formely a gum tree bee-hive. The heads are raw hide, and the fastenings bed-cords, with strips from old boot legs. It is no doubt a fair rival of the serpent skin drum heads of the Aztecs.

ARREST OF A CLERGYMAN.—Great excitement was caused in Elkton, Md., on Sunday, by the arrest of Rev. Mr. Mitchell, pastor of the Episcopal church in that town. He was apprehended by a national officer just as he was about commencing the morning service. Secession sympathies injudicsously manifested were the causes of the arrest.

The Cincinnati Commercial says there are now at Camps Dennison, Gurley and Dick Corwine, all in the vicinity of that city, six thousand infantry, two thousand cavalry, and five batteries of field artillery.

GOOD FOR GOV. HICKS.—A special session of the legislature of Maryland is to be called by Gov. Hicks, to undo the rebel legislation of last spring, to enact a new police law, and to put the state full and square on the Union platform.

JUDGE DOUGLAS' FURNITURE.—The furniture of Judge Douglas will be sold at auction, in Washington, on the 18th inst., as his house, with those adjoining, has been rented for hospital purposes. Mrs. Douglass is still at Washington, residing with her father.

A COMPARISON.—T. W. Higginson, of Worcester, Mass. has certainly invented a new comparison. He says that it is as absurd to attempt to carry on the war without striking at slavery, as it would be to storm hell without interfering with the personal comfort of Satan.

MARRIED.

In Whitewater, on Thursday, the 14th inst., by Rev. M. Rowley, Mr. JOHN H. MILLER, of Delavan, and Miss HARRIET H. PRATT, daughter of Captain J. L. Pratt of that village.

At Salisbury's Hotel, Beloit, on Sunday, November 10th, by Rev. Wm W. Adams, Mr. FRANCIS E. BACON and Miss EMMA LEWIS, both of Harmony.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Jayne's Ague Mixture
Is an infallible remedy for Fever and Ague. The experience of many years in almost every climate proves that when used strictly in accordance with the directions, it has rarely failed to cure,—not only by breaking up the chills, but by removing the morbid habits of the system, preventing a recurrence of the disease.
Fever and Ague, though not in itself dangerous, is apt, unless speedily removed, to have such a pernicious effect on the system, as to engender disorders much more baneful than itself, and which not only render the afterlife of the patient miserable, but are in themselves often fatal. A prompt and effectual remedy is therefore what is wanted, and as such DR. D. JAYNE'S AGUE MIXTURE is confidently reccommended. For sale by G. R. CURTIS,

LOST.—Some time since a diary for 1861. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the same at the Gazette office, or with the subscriber. I. C. SLOAN.
Dated Nov. 16, 1861. tyc.

MR. DICKINSON'S LECTURE.—If our citizens desire to hear Mr. Dickinson's lecture "On the State of the Country," immediate efforts to that end should be made. He is expected in this state this week, and will deliver his lecture in Madison and Beloit.

☞ The 3d Minnesota regiment passed through this city last night.

BELOIT JOURNAL.—We have inadvertently omitted to notice a change in the proprietorship and editorial management of the Beloit Journal. Mr. A. O. Perkins has withdrawn from the paper and is succeeded by Mr. L. E. Smith, a brother of B. H. Smith, one of the old proprietors. We regret to lose Mr. Perkins; he had filled his place well, and made the Journal a good paper. His successor commences well, and we hope the new and old publisher may meet with ample support and success.

CAMP TREDWAY, Nov. 17, 1861.

Capt. Kummel, in the name of his company, desires to tender his acknowledgments to Mrs. Cogswell for a gift of 25 pincushions and 5 books, which have come very acceptable to the boys, and hopes others will imitate the fair donor's example.

The Soldier's Aid Society, will meet at Mrs. I. C. Sloan's on Tuesday, Nov. 16th, at 1 o'clock P. M. The "Mite Society" at the same place in the evening.

MARIA F. CLARK, Sec'y.

BLANKETS.—Quartermaster Tredway has received notice of the shipment of 2,000 more blankets for the use of our troops.

WAUPACCA COUNTY.—This county gives Harvey 600 majority.

THE SIXTH WISCONSIN REGIMENT.—Captain A. G. Malloy, advertises for recruits for that regiment which is now encamped at Arlington Heights near Washington.

From the Tenth Regiment.

We have a letter from Geo. Hand, a private in company D of this regiment, giving an account of their journey from Milwaukee to their present place of encampment in Kentucky. The journey was pleasant. An accident occurred to a member of company D, who fell from the cars at Jeffersonville opposite Louisville, while unloading the baggage, and dislocated his shoulder. He is in the hospital at the latter place and is doing well.

The regiment was guarding a railroad bridge, on the 12th inst., at the crossing of the celebrated Salt river, in Bullitt county, Kentucky, fifteen miles from Louisville. Our correspondent says that the water of this river is as white as milk and although not good for drinking and cooking purposes, is better than the well water, which is impregnated with mineral substances, making it very unhealthy to those whose digestive organs have not been accustomed to it. Near them is a famous mineral spring, where, it is asserted that the old men of that region come and drink of its waters to renew their youth. It is to be hoped, if it has that virtue, that it will be changed in the mouths of traitors, giving them any thing but length of days. Within a mile and a half of the tenth, a part of a Kentucky regiment is encamped. "They are hard looking soldiers. A good many boys are among them, who look to be under fifteen years of age. They, however, stand camp life well, and seem to enjoy themselves. They are encamped in a grove of cedars, one of the handsomest places I have ever seen; the trees being tall and straight, are trimmed up about fifteen feet, forming a beautiful grove fragrant with resin, while it protects them from wind and sun. The most of the timber in this region, however, is beech and black walnut and the soil is much like that at Camp Holton, of a slimy and soapy character, when wet. We shall probably stay here at least a week. The consolidation of the Kentucky troops takes place in a few days, and we shall then know something more definite about our destination."

CASSEL'S ILLUSTRATED FAMILY BIBLE, No. 40, completing the old testament, has been received by Moseley & Bro., the agents for this county. They have now on hand all the numbers from the beginning. Subscribers are requested to call and complete their sets.

BOOKS FOR THE 13TH.—Thanks to Rev. G. A. Smith and several members of the M. E. Church of Milton, for books for the 13th. Also to Mr. Pullen for 40 books and 1,000 tracts; also to W. B. Hawes, Esq., for $5,00 worth of books—all for the same purpose. Let every family send us one or more. H. C. TILTON, Chaplain.

MILITARY ITEMS.—H. G. Webb reports the Tredway Pumas, at Wautoma, full to 87 men, and they are assigned to the 16th regiment.

Patrick Geraughty reports 40 men enlisted at Racine for the 17th or Irish regiment.

C. G. Pease, of Janesville, is commissioned surgeon of 2d cavalry.

General Tredway has received notice of the shipment by General Meigs, of four thousand regulation five pound blankets for the use of the Wisconsin troops. They are very much needed.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Eighth Regiment.

IN THE SWAMP, NEAR THE ARKANSAS LINE, Missouri, November 10th, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We are on a big tramp after Jeff. Thompson. We have now been marching six days in the hardest looking country that I ever expected to see. We traveled 70 miles without finding a piece of cleared land large enough to draw up the 8th in line of battle, with the thermometer most of the time from 70 to 80 degrees. A great many men gave out on the march. The first two or three days we had two Illinois regiments of infantry, five battalions of Indiana cavalry, one battery of guns, the 8th Wisconsin, which is called here "The Live Eagle Regiment," 110 army wagons, which are drawn with 800 mules, and one regiment of Missouri cavalry—the whole reaching about three miles. All we want now is to meet Mr. Thompson with his forces, and we will have a happy old time down here in the land of persimmons and frost grapes. We are encamped to-day (Sunday) after marching about five hours, in a small field belonging to an ignorant old man, who professes to be a Union man; but nary a Union man lives here. Jeff. has taken all there is in this part of the country for his crowd, and given southern scrip for pay. We have hard work to get enough to keep our teams with; but all we do get our quartermaster pays for. So I think our visit will have a good effect here, if we should not meet Jeff. at all. By what I can find out, I think there is a large force coming from Cairo and Bird's Point to meet us down here somewhere, and I think we will have the rebels in a cage—if they stand up to the rack. The boys are crazy to have a fight, they are tired of carrying their ammunition and want to get clear of it. God only knows how we will get out of this dismal swamp; it is day and night over mountains and through swamps, fording rivers, &c.; bridges are unknown here.

If you have any missionaries in Wisconsin, send them down here instead of India, for a more ignorant and heathenish set of people I never saw. School houses are unknown. I heard Major Jefferson ask a woman if she had any newspapers. She said she reckoned not. He asked her if they never had any papers. She said they borrowed one last August of one of their neighbors about five miles off. Five miles off makes near neighbors here. If we were to find a house every five miles, we would think we were in a civilized country. If this was the only country we were fighting for, you would see me in Janesville about as soon as I could walk to a station and ride there. We passed one house south of Greenville that displayed the stars and stripes, and it cheered the boys, and the boys cheered it with a will. It looked liked home to us.

Our men are very much dissatisfied about Fremont being removed. We first heard of it this morning by our sutler, who followed us from the Knob. Our cavalry is out scouting, and I suppose we will stop here until they return. Charley Riker is sitting in my door cracking walnuts; there are thousands of them here. Kane and Conroy have just brought in some chickens. Hank Sargent is killing an ox, and I suppose we are going to have something to eat after living for six days on crackers that the men have to break up with a mallet before they can swallow them. King is cooking the tongue that came from the beef, and I expect a good supper to-night. Doty is sick, but I think we will take him with us. We left about 20 of our men at the Knob, about ten of whom were sick, and the rest could not be found when we left.

The men's feet are now getting hard, and I think we are good for anything now. I have seen the blood run out of many of the men's feet, but they stood it well. Lieut. Stephens, of Co. B, died last night of typhoid fever; he was very much liked, and his loss is lamented by all. Our sick are mostly attacked with measles, and I think will soon be well. We have several prisoners and any quantity of contraband horses. Jim. Croft bought some corn dodgers yesterday, and gave the girl 50 cents. It would have made you laugh to see her eyes stick out; she never saw 50 cents before. It is a show for the people here to see the troops pass; they never saw so many men before.

You can talk about service, but the 8th has seen more hard service than all the rest of the Wisconsin regiments put together.—If the armies of the Potomac had moved as we have, secession would have been at a discount long before this.

I am sitting on the ground, writing on my knee. John White is all right to-day, and is good for the fight. How this letter will reach you I cannot tell—we are some 70 or 80 miles from any regular postoffice.

W. B. BRITTON,
Co. G, 8th Reg't, W. V.

P. S. — The friends of members of the company will direct to Pilot Knob until further notice. W. B. B.

AGENCY FOR NATIONAL LOAN.

PURSUANT to instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, a book will be opened on the twentieth day of November, 1861, at my office, in Janesville, for subscriptions under my superintendence for Treasury Notes, to be issued under the act of July 17, 1861. These notes will be issued in sums of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, and five thousand dollars each, dated 19th August, 1861, payable three years after date to the order of the subscriber or as directed, and bearing interest at the rate of 7 3-10 per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually; such interest being at the rate of two cents each day on every hundred dollars. For the convenience of the holder, each note will have coupons attached expressing the several amounts of semi-annual interest, which coupons may be detached and present ed for payment separately from the notes.

Subscriptions for such Treasury Notes will be received during fifteen days from the day of opening the book as aforesaid and afterwards. No subscription for less than fifty dollars nor for any fraction of that sum can be received. Subscriptions of fifty dollars or one hundred dollars must be paid in lawful coin of the United States at the time of subscribing. Subscriptions of more than one hundred dollars may be paid at once; or, if preferred, one tenth at the time of subscribing and one-third of the whole amount on every twentieth day thereafter until the whole shall be paid. No payment of less than fifty dollars can be accepted, that being the smallest sum for which Treasury Notes can be issued.

Certificates will be granted in duplicate to subscribers for the amounts so paid, the original of which the subscriber will transmit by mail to the Secretary of the Treasury, when Treasury Notes, as aforesaid, will be issued thereon to such subscriber or his order, carrying interest as expressed in such certificate; but in cases where only a part of the amount subscribed is paid at the time of subscribing, Treasury Notes will be issued only for the payments made subsequently to the first, which will remain until the whole amount subscribed by such person shall be paid, when Treasury Notes will be issued for such first payment also. On payment of each deferred instalment, the subscriber will pay, in addition thereto, a sum equal to the interest accrued thereon from the 19th of August to the date of payment, and on final payment like interest on the amount paid on subscription, which payments of interest will be reimbursed to the subscriber in the payment of the first coupon.

The Treasury Notes issued upon such certificates by the Treasury will be sent to the subscribers by mail, or such other mode as may be indicated by them when they transmit their original certificates. The duplicate certificates may be retained by them for their own security.

We regret to lose Mr. Perkins; he had filled his place well, and made the Journal a good paper. BLANKETS.—Quartermaster Tredway has received notice of the shipment of 2,000 more blankets for the use of our troops.

WAUPACCA COUNTY.—This county gives Harvey 600 majority.

THE SIXTH WISCONSIN REGIMENT.—Captain A. G. Malloy, advertises for recruits for that regiment which is now encamped at Arlington Heights near Washington.

From the Tenth Regiment.

We have a letter from Geo. Hand, a private in company D of this regiment, giving an account of their journey from Milwaukee to their present place of encampment in Kentucky. The journey was pleasant. An accident occurred to a member of company D, who fell from the cars at Jeffersonville opposite Louisville, while unloading the baggage, and dislocated his shoulder. He is in the hospital at the latter place and is doing well.

The regiment was guarding a railroad bridge, on the 12th inst., at the cossing of the celebrated Salt river, in Bullitt county, Kentucky, fifteen miles from Louisville. Our correspondent says that the water of this river is as white as milk and although not good for drinking and cooking purposes, is better than the well water, which is impregnated with mineral substances, making it very unhealthy to those whose digestive organs have not been accustomed to it. Near them is a famous mineral spring, where, it is asserted that the old men of that region come and drink of its waters to renew their youth. It is to be hoped, if it has that virtue, that it will be changed in the mouths of traitors; giving them any thing but length of days. Within a mile and a half of the tenth, a part of a Kentucky regiment is encamped. "They are hard looking soldiers. A good many boys are among them, who look to be under fifteen years of age. They, however, stand camp life well, and seem to enjoy themselves. They are encamped in a grove of cedars, one of the handsomest places I have ever seen; the trees being tall and straight, are trimmed up about fifteen feet, forming a beautiful grove fragrant with resin, while it protects them from wind and sun. The most of the timber in this region, however, is beech and black walnut and the soil is much like that at Camp Holton, of a slimy and soapy character, when wet. We shall probably stay here at least a week. The consolidation of the Kentucky troops takes place in a few days, and we shall then know something more definite about our destination."

CASSEL'S ILLUSTRATED FAMILY BIBLE, No. 40, completing the old testament, has been received by Moseley & Bro., the agents for this county. They have now on hand all the numbers from the beginning. Subscribers are requested to call and complete their sets.

BOOKS FOR THE 13TH.—Thanks to Rev. G. A. Smith and several members of the M. E. Church of Milton, for books for the 13th. Also to Mr. Pullen for 40 books and 1,000 tracts; also to W. B. Hawes, Esq., for $5,00 worth of books—all for the same purpose. Let every family send us one or more. H. C. TILTON, Chaplain.

MILITARY ITEMS.—H. G. Webb reports the Tredway Pumas, at Wautoma, full to 87 men, and they are assigned to the 16th regiment.

Patrick Geraughty reports 40 men enlisted at Racine for the 17th or Irish regiment.

C. G. Pease, of Janesville, is commissioned surgeon of 2d cavalry.

General Tredway has received notice of the shipment by General Meigs, of four thousand regulation five pound blankets for the use of the Wisconsin troops. They are very much needed.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Eighth Regiment.

IN THE SWAMP, NEAR THE ARKANSAS LINE, Missouri, November 10th, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We are on a big tramp after Jeff. Thompson. We have now been marching six days in the hardest looking country that I ever expected to see. We traveled 70 miles without finding a piece of cleared land large enough to draw up the 8th in line of battle, with the thermometer most of the time from 70 to 80 degrees. A great many men gave out on the march. The first two or three days we had two Illinois regiments of infantry, five battalions of Indiana cavalry, one battery of guns, the 8th Wisconsin, which is called here "The Live Eagle Regiment," 110 army wagons, which are drawn with 800 mules, and one regiment of Missouri cavalry—the whole reaching about three miles. All we want now is to meet Mr. Thompson with his forces, and we will have a happy old time down here in the land of persimmons and frost grapes. We are encamped to-day (Sunday) after marching about five hours, in a small field belonging to an ignorant old man, who professes to be a Union man; but nary a Union man lives here. Jeff. has taken all there is in this part of the country for his crowd, and given southern scrip for pay. We have hard work to get enough to keep our teams with; but all we do get our quartermaster pays for. So I think our visit will have a good effect here, if we should not meet Jeff. at all. By what I can find out, I think there is a large force coming from Cairo and Bird's Point to meet us down here somewhere, and I think we will have the rebels in a cage—if they stand up to the rack. The boys are crazy to have a fight; they are tired of carrying their ammunition and want to get clear of it. God only knows how we will get out of this dismal swamp; it is day and night over mountains and through swamps, fording rivers, &c.; bridges are unknown here.

If you have any missionaries in Wisconsin, send them down here instead of India, for a more ignorant and heathenish set of people I never saw. School houses are unknown. I heard Major Jefferson ask a woman if she had any newspapers. She said she reckoned not. He asked her if they never had any papers. She said they borrowed one last August of one of their neighbors about five miles off. Five miles off makes near neighbors here. If we were to find a house every five miles, we would think we were in a civilized country. If this was the only country we were fighting for, you would see me in Janesville about as soon as I could walk to a station and ride there. We passed one house south of Greenville that displayed the stars and stripes, and it cheered the boys, and the boys cheered it with a will. It looked liked home to us.

Our men are very much dissatisfied about Fremont being removed. We first heard of it this morning by our sutler, who followed us from the Knob. Our cavalry is out scouting, and I suppose we will stop here until they return. Charley Riker is sitting in my door cracking walnuts; there are thousands of them here. Kane and Conroy have just brought in some chickens. Hank Sargent is killing an ox, and I suppose we are going to have something to eat after living for six days on crackers that the men have to break up with a mallet before they can swallow them. King is cooking the tongue that came from the beef, and I expect a good supper to-night. Doty is sick, but I think we will take him with us. We left about 20 of our men at the Knob, about ten of whom were sick, and the rest could not be found when we left.

The men's feet are now getting hard, and I think we are good for anything now. I have seen the blood run out of many of the men's feet, but they stood it well. Lieut. Stephens, of Co. B, died last night of typhoid fever; he was very much liked, and his loss is lamented by all. Our sick are mostly attacked with measles, and I think will soon be well. We have several prisoners and any quantity of contraband horses. Jim. Croft bought some corn dodgers yesterday, and gave the girl 50 cents. It would have made you laugh to see her eyes stick out; she never saw 50 cents before. It is a show for the people here to see the troops pass; they never saw so many men before.

You can talk about service, but the 8th has seen more hard service than all the rest of the Wisconsin regiments put together.—If the armies of the Potomac had moved as we have, secession would have been at a discount long before this.

I am sitting on the ground, writing on my knee. John White is all right to-day, and is good for the fight. How this letter will reach you I cannot tell—we are some 70 or 80 miles from any regular postoffice.

W. B. BRITTON,
Co. G, 8th Reg't, W. V.

AGENCY FOR NATIONAL LOAN.

PURSUANT to instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, a book will be opened on the twentieth day of November, 1861, at my office, in Janesville, for subscriptions under my superintendence for Treasury Notes, to be issued under the act of July 17, 1861. These notes will be issued in sums of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, and five thousand dollars each, dated 19th August, 1861, payable three years after date to the order of the subscriber or as directed, and bearing interest at the rate of 7 3-10 per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually; such interest being at the rate of two cents each day on every hundred dollars. For the convenience of the holder, each note will have coupons attached expressing the several amounts of semi-annual interest, which coupons may be detached and presented for payment separately from the notes.

Subscriptions for such Treasury Notes will be received during fifteen days from the day of opening the book as aforesaid and afterwards. No subscription for less than fifty dollars nor for any fraction of that sum can be received. Subscriptions of fifty dollars or one hundred dollars must be paid in lawful coin of the United States at the time of subscribing. Subscriptions of more than one hundred dollars may be paid at once; or, if preferred, one tenth at the time of subscribing and one-third of the whole amount on every twentieth day thereafter until the whole shall be paid. No payment of less than fifty dollars can be accepted, that being the smallest sum for which Treasury Notes can be issued.

Certificates will be granted in duplicate to subscribers for the amounts so paid, the original of which the subscriber will transmit by mail to the Secretary of the Treasury, when Treasury Notes, as aforesaid, will be issued thereon to such subscriber or his order, carrying interest as expressed in such certificate; but in cases where only a part of the amount subscribed is paid at the time of subscribing, Treasury Notes will be issued only for the payments made subsequently to the first, which will remain until the whole amount subscribed by such person shall be paid, when Treasury Notes will be issued for such first payment also. On payment of each deferred instalment, the subscriber will pay, in addition thereto, a sum equal to the interest accrued thereon from the 19th of August to the date of payment, and on final payment like interest on the amount paid on subscription, which payments of interest will be reimbursed to the subscriber in the payment of the first coupon.

The Treasury Notes issued upon such certificates by the Treasury will be sent to the subscribers by mail, or such other mode as may be indicated by them when they transmit their original certificates. The duplicate certificates may be retained by them for their own security. WM. M. TALLMAN, Agent
Janesville, Nov. 12th, 1861. for National Loan.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library; and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

The solid service long and successfully tried, and the many advantages the Ætna Insurance Company possess in its line, should not be overlooked by those ready to insure and understanding their bests interests.

During "stringent times" the necessity for reliable Insurance becomes an imperative duty—the ability of property holders to sustain loss being then much lessened.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION and the WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the Rise and Progress of the Rebellion, and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library; and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

DAILY GAZETTE.

WHEN TO CUT A PIG YOKE.—The Rochestor Daily Union relates the following anecdote of one of the most successful business men of this state,

When young he was a farmer, and at one time wished to hire a man for general farm work. It was not long before a hale and stalwart fellow presented himself as a candidate for the place: when the young farmer set about an examination of his qualifications. "Are you used to plowing?" "Oh yes; have followed the plow-tail for years." "Understand mowing and cradling?" "Perfectly: won't allow any man to beat me at it either." "Can you and would you be willing to help milk when it is too rainy for the women folks to go to the yard?" "Certainly: can milk a cow as quick as any gal on the premises: and expect to turn my hand to anything."—"Well—well—that's all very satisfactory; but there is just one thing more: do you know when is the best time to cut a pig yoke?" That was a stumper. Candidate scratched his head in deep thought for a moment and replied, "he was not quite sure; but he guessed the winter was the best time!"—"No, sir, that isn't it," said the young farmer. "You wont do for me; I wont have a man around me that dont know when to cut a pig yoke."

Candidates number two and number three presented themselves successively, and went through the same inquisitorial process triumphantly, until they came to the fatal question—"Do you know when is the best time to cut a pig yoke?" And on that they both failed—number two answering "the full moon in June:" and number three being decidedly of the opinion that the best time was "when the sap is out of the wood." Both were rejected.

Number four, like his predecessors, went through the "preliminary examination" swimmingly: when up comes the test question, "do you know when is the best time to cut a pig yoke?" Candidate hangs his head in a brown study; but after a little time for reflection, he answered in a half doubting, half confident tone: w-a-ll, that's a matter I never thought on much; but I should say the best time to cut a pid yoke was when you come across one!" That's it—that's it," quoth the farmer in delight: "you're the man for me." And he relates that that man always proved equal to any emergency in which he was placed.

PURCHASE OF A PAIR OF BOOTS IN NASHVILLE.—A writer in the Nashville (Tenn.) Patriot gives his experience in attempting to purchase a pair of sewed boots in that city, in the following words:

The owner of the shop took down from a peg a pair of stitch downs. I tried them on. I must do them the justice to say that they fitted me as handsomely as if my feet hed been melted and poured into them. I determined to buy them, cost what they might. "Ill take these," said I, stamping my right violently on the floor, and taking a ten dollar bill from my vest pocket, "Take your pay out of that," said I, handing him the costly shinplaster. I really believe the individual who stood before me at that moment was the most thoroughly astonished bootmaker that I ever saw. He looked first at the money and then at me, turning alternately white and red, while his eyeballs protruded from their sockets as if they were being shoved outward by some hydraulic pressure within. At last, just as I was about to cry "fire," or run for the doctor, or something of the sort, he spoke: "You are from the country, ain't you?" I answered that I was. "I thought so," said he; "them boots is eighteen dollars!" I didn't say another word. I sat down and pulled off "them boots," more in sorrow than in anger, drew on my own, and walked out of the shop. The proprietor of the establishment must have taken me for the Prince of Wales, or the owner of the State Bank. Eighteen dollars for a pair of boots! I earnestly trust that posterity will not think me too particular about trifles, but I can't pay such prices.

A FATHER ATTEMPTS TO HANG HIS OWN CHILD.—A man named James Griner, residing on Providence street, returned to his home last evening considerably under the influence of liquor, and concluded to hang one of his children for amusement. Notwithstanding the entreaties of his wife, he fixed a rope about the child's neck, and, throwing it over a bedpost, choked the little sufferer till its tongue hung out. The mother screamed for assistance; but, seeing the danger of the child, and being wrought up to madness, seized a billet of wood, and, dealing the brutal husband and father a heavy blow on the head, stretched him senseless and bloody upon the floor. He was soon after secured and lodged in a station-house for the night.—Cin. Gazette, Nov. 9.

Marshal Kane is described as the most noticeable among the state prisoners at Fort Warren. He bustles about in a Scotch cap, with his pant legs within his boots, and by a stranger might be mistaken for the principal person of the garrison. He converses freely with the officers stationed at the fort, and evidently is not much discontented with his position.

WAR MATERIAL WITH THE FLEET.—It is stated that the naval expedition sailed with 300,000 musket balls, 50,000 buck and ball cartridges, 100,000 rifle cartridges, 200,000 percussion caps, 50,000 pounds of cannon powder, 5,000 pounds of musket powder, 1,000 hand grenades, and many other combustible and destructive materials to aid in carrying on a successful warfare.

A fight had occurred at Guaymas, Mexico, between the foreigners and natives. The American consul was in prison, and three Americans were shot. It is said that 300 Americans had put 500 Mexicans to flight.

AN ISSUE BETWEEN GEN. STONE AND COL. HINKS.—Gen. Stone issued an order reflecting with great severity on the report made by Col. Hinks, of the Massachusets nineteenth, upon the battle of Ball's Bluff.—Col. Hinks immediately wrote a letter recapitulating the positions taken in his report, and asking a court of inquiry.

Judge Dewey, of Boston, has decided that an enlistment by a man when drunk, is not binding—that enlisting in the government service is but a contract between the volunteer and the government, and implies a legal consent to tne same, as to any other contract, which cannot be given in a state of intoxication. Recruiting officers will do well to remember this.

GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—The Prices
—OF—
SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says:

If Fremont has been abused, either purposely or mistakenly, time will not only vindicate him, but will make him the most ample reparation that his ambition can desire. At present the nation cannot pause to quarrel over him.

If the nation is at war it is no reason that injustice should be done to any man, whether a high officer or a common soldier. When we conclude to carry on the war without reference to right or wrong we from that moment will fail. Our strength is in our righteous cause; and when the people are ready silently to submit to witness the trampling under foot of a General against whom no charge has been proven, but whose every act shows his patriotism, they are in a fit condition to be beaten ignominiously by the rebels, and enslaved by conspirators. It is because the people have not lost their virtue that they will "pause," not "to quarrel over" any man, but to insist that he shall have fair play. Though the enemy were thundering at our gates, fair play among ourselves would still be a jewel worth preserving. It is the right, of course, of those who choose, to stand by and see General Fremont sacrificed. If they should witness a hundred infuriated ruffians fall upon one man and beat him, they might possibly excuse their act of non-interference to themselves, but the judgment of the world would be against them. There was a case of this kind in the olden time, when a certain man fell among thieves, and the priest and Levite passed by on the other side, to avoid helping him. We have never heard the conduct of these men commended. They are regarded as models of selfishness which should be shunned, while the Samaritan who acted the part of a neighbor and friend to the unfortunate man, gave an example worthy to be followed.

It is true that time will vindicate Fremont, but when he is set upon by a host of enemies who rain falsehoods upon his head, it is then time that his friends, if he has any, should at least see that he has a fair field. The idea that we must not say a word in his favor, because that would condemn the administration, would excuse any abuse that might be committed by the government. The war must not prevent us from looking sharply into the acts of all engaged in it. The administration has itself set an example of such an investigation in the case of Fremont. They have had a report from their Adjutant General Thomas, on this subject, and instead of using it for their own private information, it has been published in the newspapers as a justification of their conduct towards Fremont. Now, if it is wrong, during the war, to get up an issue of this kind, who is worthy of censure? Who first appealed to the public through the press? Those who did it cannot expect to begin discussion and then denounce all who reply, as enemies of the government. Such a position would be so transparently wrong that no one can justify it. But even now, with the unfairness manifested in the publication of that report, together with the garbled and false statements purloined from the testimony of the investigating committee, the friends of Gen. Fremont would be willing to wait for the developments of time, "which at last sets all things even," if his enemies would do so; but they have not ceased their work, nor their denunciations through the public press. If the Sentinel and other papers which profess and recommend neutrality on this subject, would use their influence on such papers as the Chicago Tribune and prevail upon them to cease their warfare upon Fremont, we think they would effect their object much more speedily.

The nation will not quarrel over this Fremont matter, but it will think about it, and one of its present thoughts is, that it is not Fremont who is aimed at, but the principle of his proclamation. It is not that he has mismanaged the war worse than others against whom not a word has been uttered, but that he proposed to make the slaves of rebels free men. That is now the belief of the mass of the people,—time may cause them to reverse their judgment, but such is their present verdict.

WISCONSIN RAILROAD FARM MORTGAGES.—We presume it is not so generally understood, but one of the principal issues which entered into the recent state election in Wisconsin was the railroad farm mortgage question. This fact we have from a gentleman who knows of what he speaks. The repudiators to a man voted for Benjamin Ferguson, the Democratic candidate, in pursuance of a manifesto issued from the the "League," and for this reason, and owing to the political apathy in the state, Ferguson came very near being the successful candidate.—Chicago Tribune.

So far as this county is concerned, the Tribune is wrong. Some republican mortgagors, it is true, voted for Mr. Ferguson, but there were many others who voted for Mr. Harvey.

A requisition from Gov. Gamble, of Missouri, on Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, has been forwarded, in a view to return to the scene of his peculations, Watson the delinquent army contractor, now in custody at Pittsburg.

A Visit to St. Louis and Cairo.

Leaving Janesville on the 7th inst., by C. & N. W. R.R., I arrived in Chicago the same day, and the next morning embarked for St. Louis by the C., A. & St. Louis R. R., Mr. Vanduzer conductor. This road is well and substantially built, and supplied with first-class rolling stock; it passes through a fertile and beautiful section of country, dotted along the line with thriving cities and villages. We stopped at Bloomington for dinner; here there was assembled several thousand persons to welcome Col. Mulligan, who was on the train from St. Louis. The reception was one that spoke volumes for the loyalty and earnestness of the people, and their desire to honor the brave defender of Lexington. We arrived at St. Louis about 9 o'clock P. M.—This city wears a military appearance; in the upper portion of it the government is building a number of staunch tug boats, and at the lower part there is in course of construction four large iron clad gun boats. One of these is of very large dimensions, and all are to be proof against shot and shell. Their armament will be the heaviest and most powerful used by the navy, as they are intended to destroy the batteries of the rebels on the lower Mississippi. The whole fleet will be commanded by Commodore Foot of the navy. The Benton Barracks are situated about three miles west of the city, directly west of and adjoining the fair grounds. They occupy 320 acres of land for a parade ground, the barracks being built on the north and south sides of the same, and are capable of accommodating 20,000 troops.

There was a general review of the troops on Sunday, by Generals Curtis and Strong. The display was fine; there being nearly 2,000 cavalry and 4,000 infantry, and two full batteries of artillery. The amount of military stores, wagons, horses, mules, &c., is immense, and shows that there has been a great amount of labor performed at this place. At the arsenal a large force of men were engaged in manufacturing round shot, shell, grape and cannister. There are over 100 large rifled cannon inside the enclosure, varying from 24 to 120 pounders.

Gen. Prentiss returned here on Saturday with over 30 prisoners taken in the northern part of the state, who were placed in the arsenal. The general stated that the rebels in that section were quiet, and had ceased to molest railroad trains. He is a plain, unpretending officer, making no display of servants or gaudy equipage, not even wearing a sword when he was in the city. He has about 7,000 troops under his command, and has succeeded in quieting nearly all of the northern part of Missouri. He told me that he assured the people everywhere that if they were loyal they would not be interfered with, if not they would get a large share of what Jim. Lane promised them a little of.

Leaving St. Louis on Monday the 11th, at 4 o'clock P. M. by the O. & M. R. R. I proceeded to Odin, thence by I. C. R. R. to Cairo, where I arrived early next morning. At this place and also at Bird's Point on the west side of the river, and Fort Holt on the Kentucky side, there are constructed strong fortifications which are well supplied with heavy armaments of artillery. A force of 20,000 troops is stationed here, consisting of Infantry, Cavalry and Field Artillery. At Cairo they have barracks constructed for winter quarters, at Fort Holt the troops were constructing them, and at Bird's Point they were to commence them at an early day.

A touching incident came under my observation while at Fort Holt. A middle aged and apparently well-to-do farmer from the central part of Illinois had learned that his son, belonging to one of the regiments stationed there, was very sick, and he had come to visit him. As soon as he arrived at the landing he enquired for his son; at the same time four soldiers passed him with a coffin which he was told was for his son who had died that morning. He followed them to their camp where the corpse was placed in the coffin, and with sad hearts and muffled drums they conveyed their dead companion to the boat, where the bereaved father took charge of it, to convey to his home.

On Tuesday the 12th a boat with a flag of truce was sent down to Columbus and brought up the wounded of the Belmont battle. A sight of these unfortunate persons was enough to show the horrors of war. Nearly all of them had lost a limb and some of them had severe wounds besides. On the same day the expedition sent out under the command of Col. Oglesby to assist in capturing Jeff Thompson returned, having gone no farther than Bloomfield. They found Jeff was too fleet for them being, as at Pilot Knob, a good runner. The soldiers gave many amusing incidents that occurred during their trip.

They were allowed considerable liberty with the property of those known to be rebels and they lived well generally. One day when they had halted for the night they were forbidden to take anything except some fowls which they started in pursuit of. One sturdy German returned with a fine fat sheep; on being questioned by the Colonel why he disobeyed orders stated that he was unable to catch any fowls, and that he considered the sheep of as much value to the hungry as a goose or a turkey, and therefore he had brought him along. The Colo did not see the point in the logic, but acquiessced in the conclusion.

Taylor's battery of field artillery was encamped at Bird's Point. A part of this company were engaged at the battle of Fredericktown and Pilot Knob, and the whole company was at the battle of Belmont, where they were engaged over six hours in one of the fiercest battles yet fought, within range of the enemy's rifled guns at Columbus. On their retreat they were compelled to pass through a raking cross fire of the enemy; yet they did not lose a man, and brought off all their guns, and two belonging to the enemy. Their guns and caissons bore evidence of a severe conflict. One wheel was struck by a cannon ball which cut the tire and felloe entirely off; one of the caissons was struck in several places by grape and cannister shot. Several of the men lost limbs, and some were otherwise wounded, but they were brought off by their companions, every one reaching their camp alive.

The artillery force opposed to them was the famous New Orleans battery, the crack company of the rebels, which was supported by nearly 4,000 of their oldest and best drilled infantry, armed with Springfield rifles. They probably are the same guns sent by Floyd south last winter; they were manufactured to defend this government against foreign foes, but are now used to shoot down the very men who are endeavoring to sustain it.

The Union forces captured one hundred and sixty rebel prisoners at Belmont.—They were kept on one of the large steamers, and upon the invitation of a chaplain, I visited them; they were principally from Memphis and had been in service over six months. About one half of them were hard looking specimens of humanity; the other half would compare favorably with mankind generally. Some that I conversed with were intelligent, and deprecated the war, denouncing the ring leaders of the rebellion in the most emphatic terms. They said the people generally were sick of the war and would be glad to stop it, if they were not led on by the hot-headed secessionists and political tricksters who had got control, by being in power under the general government.

Leaving Cairo Wednesday morning, via the Illinois Central railroad, with a "pass" out of the city, which all visitors are required to obtain, I arrived home Thursday evening, well repaid for the time and expenses incident to the trip.

A general statement of the condition and wants of the sick and wounded will be made to-morrow. My main object in this visit was to acquire information upon this important subject. W.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

ST. JOHNS, Nov. 6.

The City of Washington arrived off Cape Race.

Cotton dull with a downward tendency. Manchester advices unfavorable. Breadstuffs generally quiet and steady, except wheat, which has an upward tendency.—Flour quiet and steady. Corn easier.

A convention between France, England and Spain for intervention in Mexico, was signed in London on the 3d inst.

The London Times editorially condemns Secretary Seward's dispatches to Lord Lyons. It also ridicules Mr. Seward's manifesto to the governors of states.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.

Gen. Hunter and staff arrived by to-night's train. He has ordered Gen. Curtis to remove Col. McNeil from his position as provost marshal and to appoint a substitute.—It is understood Chas. F. Cady will be appointed, though McNeil's assistant, Capt. Leighton, is favorably mentioned.

The government agent named Digby, lately arrested on the Missouri river packet Thomas Tuft, has been released and arrived here safely.

It is said that a majority of the Camp Jackson prisoners exceanged for Mulligan's men are already in the rebel service. A question is raised before the exchanging commissioners whether men who have violated their parole are included in the arrangement between Fremont and Price.

CAIRO, Nov. 15.

There has nothing of importance transpired here to-day, with the exception of the arrival of three secession officers, of Camp Jackson notoriety, on their way to the Southern Confederacy. Their names are Capt. O. G. Barrett, Lieut. E. Blennerhasset, and Lieut. Chas. Wyman, of the Missouri State Guards.

Our missing men of the Belmont fight still continue to come in.

FT. MONROE, Nov. 16.

A flag of truce went to Norfolk, obtaining no papers.

Several gun-boats have gone to Newport News.

The rebels have assembled in considerable force at Great Bethel.

An attack on Newport News is not improbable. The recent fire at Norfolk consumed a large quantity of valuable stores, including nearly the entire supply of oil.

The steamer Spaulding will leave for Hatteras to-night, towing two vessels loaded with frame houses for troops.

LEAVENWORTH, Nov. 16.

Gen. Lane's command was expected at Fort Scott on the evening of the 14th.

A doubtful rumor says there was a force of 1,000 rebels at Bawers Mills, 50 miles from Fort Scott.

The creating of the new military department of Kansas, with Maj. Gen. Hunter in command, gives great satisfaction and confidence to the citizens of Kansas.

The recent election in this state resulted in the choice of Topeka as the state capital.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.

Capt. Taylor, who has arrived here with dispatches, reports that when the San Jacinto stopped at Cienfuegos, the escape of Slidell and Mason was ascertained. Proceeding thence to Havana, it was understood they had taken passage on the 7th inst., on the British mail steamer Trent, plying between Vera Cruz, by way of Havana and St. Thomas, and Southampton.

While the San Jacinto was in the narrowest part of the Bahama channel, about twenty-four miles to the westward, she met the packet, and as usual in such cases, fired a shot across her bow, and brought her to.

Two boats were sent to her, under command of Lieut. Fairfax, who, boarding the packet, arrested Mason and Slidell, who were personally known to him. They at first objected to being removed without the employment of force for this purpose.—However, they were soon after removed without further trouble, and conveyed to the San Jacinto. Their respective secretaries, Eustis and McFarlan, were brought on board, and are now on their way to New York.

The packet had no other save her own flag. The remainder of her passengers, including the ladies connected with the Slidell and Mason party, were not molested, and were therefore left free to pursue their journey.

Official dispatches are voluminous, and include several accounts of the capture, together with a protest of Mason and Slidell against being taken from a British ship.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.

A recent letter to the Charleston Mercury says the iron sheeting made for the Merrimac has proved worthless under trial.

FORT MONROE, Nov. 16.

Slidell had his wife and four children aboard, who were allowed to proceed to Europe. Com. Wilkes had an interview with Gen. Wool who expressed the opinion that he did right,—and who said that right or wrong these men had to be secured, and if he had done wrong, the government could do no more than cashier him for it.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.

A special despatch says there is reason to believe that the government adheres to its determination to make Beaufort an open port. The Treasury Department emphatically denies that counterfeit treasury notes have been put into circulation. Last night was the coldest of the season in camp.

The 11th and 14th regiments United States infantry are to be hutted during the winter at Perrysville, Md; sixteen hundred troops will thus be quartered and form a camp of instruction; eight hundred are there already.

The intelligence of the capture of Slidell and Mason has diffused the greatest possible joy among all classes, including of course government officers from the President down. The brilliant exploit at Port Royal was certainly not more if quite as electric in its effects upon the public mind as the taking of the generally regarded unprincipled and dangerous emmissaries.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, November, 16.

SIR:—It is with no ordinary emotion that I tender to you and your command the heartfelt congratulations and thanks of the government and the country for the brilliant success achieved at Port Royal in the war now raging against the government, in this most causeless and unnatural rebellion that ever afflicted a country. High hopes have been indulged in the Navy and great confidence reposed in its efforts. The result of the skill and bravery of yourself and others have equalled and surpassed our highest expectations. To you and your associates, under the providence of God, we are indebted for this great achievement by the largest squadron every fittted out under the flag which you have so gallantly vindicated and which you will bear onward to continued success. On the reception of your despatches, announcing the victory at Port Royal, the department issued the enclosed general order, which, with this letter, you will cause to be read to your command. I am your obedient servant.

GIDEON WELLES.

To Flag Officer SAMUEL F. DUPONT commanding Atlantic blockading squadron.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.

Gen. Denver, of California, left to-day for Leavenworth, to report to General Hunter.

All is quiet along the Potomac to-day.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 17.

A slight snow—the first of the season—fell this morning.

The Mount Sterling Whig has a report from Thomas Turner, one of Gen. Nelson's aids, relative to the Piketon engagement. He says: "At Prestonburg the federal army divided into two columns, one under Colonel Sile via Johns creek, the other met the enemy by another route at Ivy creek. The latter had a sharp engagement for one hour and twenty minutes, routing the rebels, killing six and wounding twenty-four. The rebels reported to Unionists that they had lost from 200 to 300, of whom forty were killed and about sixty wounded."—Another account says the federals lost six killed and seventeen wounded. The previous accounts from Cincinnati appears to have been exaggerated.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.

London market—Wheat upward tendency and advanced 1s per 92.

The Times exposes Lord Lyon's bad grammer in his letters to Mr. Seward. It says the English side was argued exceedingly ill, and the American side with much ability, but the only result is to entirely convince us that in their own showing the acts of the American government have been illegal as regards American citizens, and violations of the rights of nations as regards foreigners.

The London Herald says Lord Lyons has exposed England to rebuff without the right to resent it. The Herald then attacks Earl Russell for impertinence in lecturing on the American Constitution, and quietly enduring robbery and outrage, and says he will find he has drifted on war. Seward has wantonly added another to the many differences which he wishes perpetuated between the two countries.

The Daily News thinks the course pursued by the government premature, indiscreet and inconsiderate. It was reported that the American bankers were holding out liberal commissions to English financiers to place a portion of the federal loan in London. The London Journal points out danger of tendering it.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

MADISON, Nov. 18.

The 11th regiment will leave Madison for Missouri on Wednesday next.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.

World's dispatch.—Gen. Sumner has not yet been assigned to any command, but in view of his long experience and service in California, Gen. McClellan who was formerly a captain under him, will detail him immediately to some responsible post.

Soon after the announcement was made of the contemplated interposition by England, France and Spain in Mexican affairs, our government dispatched a ship of war, commanded by an experienced officer, to the gulf to look after our interests. Another vessel was also despatched up the coast to Tampico, to prevent the transit of passengers from the rebel government across that country, and also to prevent the shipment of cotton, &c., from the rebel states. This wise precaution, it is said, has suddenly put a stop to an extensive traffic which was about being inaugurated. At about the same time, Secretary Seward sent a respectful communication to England, France and Spain, respecting the alleged intervention of these governments into the affairs of Mexico, but to last advices from Europe, no satisfactory answer has been received by our government. They appear to be quibbling upon this matter, and seem disinclined to state their real objects and designs. Our government is keeping a most vigilant watch, and will not permit this formidable European combination to make any advances or aggression on this continent.

FT. MONROE, Nov. 17.

Our naval force at Newport News has been increased, in order to check the rebel expedition fitting out in James river, of which three formidable fire-boats are said to form a part.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.

By the Cosmopolitan, from Havana, we learn that Mr. Savage, U. S. vice consul at Havana, who had been to Key West and returned on the 10th inst., reports 1,500 rebel troops were discovered by the Union patrol some 200 rods from the fort on Santa Rosa island. The patrol immediately informed the commander of the fleet, who sent a force and shelled them off the island with great loss. Their object was to get together some 5,000 or more rebels and make another night attack on Wilson's Zouaves. The greatest vigilance is exercised by the commander of the Zouaves.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.

Tribune's dispatch.—The Heintzelman pickets extend to Occatiuce Creek, down the river. No rebels have been seen by them since the reconnoisance. The president has appointed Lieut. Henry A. Wise, of the navy, acting chief of the bureau of ordnance and hydrographer in the navy department during the temporary absence of Capt. A. Harwood.

It is not believed at headquarters that any considerable number of troops have withdrawn from the rebel army opposite Washington in consequence of the invasion of South Carolina.

Beauregard has not gone to Charleston, as reported. The rumor however, which imputes to him an inclination to resign, unless a more vigorous policy be adopted in the conduct of the war, is not without foundation. On Saturday morning our guns at Budd's ferry sent 13 shells among the rebels, behind Shipping Point battery, driving them from the fortification.

This afternoon 500 seamen, under command of Wainwright, took the cars for Cairo, where they will join Com. Foote's flotilla.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 18.

The steamer Georgia arrived this morning from Newton, Worcester county, Maryland. Four hundred federal troops were preparing to go into Virginia on their way up the Pomoke. A boat was sent ashore with Dix's proclamation. It was read to a large number of Virginians in a farm house, who declared it entirely satisfactory, and claimed protection of the government from secessionists, who were forcing them into the rebel ranks against their will. The gun-boat Resolute had been giving them protection through the day, but at night they would have to seek shelter in the woods. Nothing new from Fortress Monroe. All quiet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 13th gives the names of 13 hostages, to await the result of the trial of the pirates at the north. They are Cols. Corcoran, Lee, Cogswell, Wilcox, Woodruff and Neff; Majors Potter, Cevere and Vodges; Capts. Rockwood, Bowman and Keffer.

The cargo of the steamer, said to have arrived at Savannah, consisted of 10 rifled cannon, 28,000 stand of arms and a large assorted cargo of medicines, clothing, blankets, &c. The vessel cost £38,000 and is regarded as unsurpassed in speed. Her commander is J. D. Bullock, formerly of the U. S. Navy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.

The Times says: We have reliable information that when the news of the capture of Port Royal reached the Confederate camp at Manassas, three South Carolina regiments demanded permission to return at once to the protection of their own state. Orders were issued from headquarters to prevent their departure at all hazards. The declaration of state sovereignty, and of the right of secession, does not seem to find as much favor with the Confederate authorities as at the outset of rebellion.

The Herald says the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th regiments of New Jersey, forming the 2d New Jersey Brigade, have been ordered to Annapolis, from whence they proceed to pollute the sacred soil of South Carolina.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.

Flour market less active but without decided change. Wheat receipts 217,048 bu. Market shade better with fair export demand; sales 100,000 bu at 1,26a1,27 for Chicago spring; 1,28a1,31 for Milwaukee club.

Suggestions to Good Samaritans.

HOSPITAL 13th. REGIMENT, CAMP TREDWAY, Nov. 18.

To those who are anxious and willing to contribute to the relief of soldiers in hospital, it may be well to suggest that there is at present a want of blankets and comfortables. A few pairs of socks would not come amiss. A few pieces of old carpet would be a great addition to the parlors, as it is imprudent to wet the rough floors sufficiently to keep them clean.

In bringing eatables do not all bring jellies, as it will be difficult to transport them, besides dried and fresh fruits are much better for the sick. Dried fruits, of the smaller varieties, very acceptable now, will doubtless be doubly so hereafter.

Finally, do not often enter the hospital unless you can be of service, or by permission of one of the surgeons; and when you do enter spend your time in cheering up the boys rather than weeping and wringing your hands, or you will do more harm than good.

Donations to the hospital will be received at the office tent in front of the hospital. The patients are all doing well.

The donation of various articles by Mrs. J. B. Crosby and of fresh apples by Mrs. Webster, were very welcome.

In behalf of the sick, S. S. W.

ANOTHER ENTERTAINMENT.—A company of the "Campbells" will give a concert at Lappin's Hall Wednesday evening. See their advertisement.

THE LEGISLATURE.—The Madison Journal makes the following classification of the members of the next legislature:

SENATE—Republicans 21, democrats 11. One district to hear from.

ASSEMBLY — Straight republicans 41; straight democrats 33; Union 24. Of the "Union" members, 17 out of 23 are of democratic antecedents. There are three districts yet to hear from, to-wit: Douglas, La Pointe, &c.; Eau Claire, Chippewa and Dunn; Trempeleau, Pepin and Buffalo.—In each of these districts the chances are in favor of the republicans.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE AGAIN ON "BOGUS REPORTS."—The Chicago Tribune discredits the report that Gen. Hunter gave permission to the owners of slaves to search through our camps for ther runaway chattels, and reclaim them if found. It adds:

"For his honor, and the honor of the service, we hope the General has been grossly belied; and that the dispatch which asserts his willingness to see men dragged as slaves from the shadow of the American flag flying at the head of American soldiers, is bogus—the work of the "gang" who of late have so industriously been employed in deluding and humbugging the public."

No doubt the Tribune does "hope" that the report is "bogus," as it characterizes everything from this state, which does not square with its own reckless assertions; but, nevertheless, it is true to the letter.—In numerous instances Gen. Hunter's Adjutant, by the direct orders of the General himself, gave written permission to bereaved slave owners in Springfield to hunt through our camps for their negroes: and armed with this permission, many of them were searching through the various commands on Friday and Saturday, before the withdrawal of our troops from Springfield. —St. Louis Democrat.

AN IMPORTANT AND COSTLY LAW SUIT SETTLED.—A settlement has been made with Louis Robert, who has been in litigation with the city of St. Paul for some time in reference to a piece of property claimed by him, and known as the lower landing, by which the city issues bonds to him for $5,000 and remits $1,000 of his back taxes, in consideration of a quitclaim from Robert of the levee property claimed by him. The costs that have accrued in this suit, with the amount paid by the city in the settlement of this claim, will not fall short of about $20,000.—St. Paul Pioneer, Nov. 9th.

Eight companies are reported full for the 16th regiment, and two nearly full.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

HOSPITAL AT WHEELING.—Gen. Rosecranz has given an order and the necessary instructions for the establishment of a general hospital at Wheeling—a much needed institution in Western Virginia. The Intelligencer states that the Government has rented the hotel known as the Sprigg House for the hospital.

Among the recent deaths in the army of the Potomac is recorded that of Abner A. Wheeler, 7th Wisconsin, at the hospital for eruptive fevers; and that of W. Kumley, 6th Wisconsin, Co. G, at Columbia College Hospital.

The cash operations of the treasury department for four weeks in October were $92.834,442. Last year it was less than $9,000,500. Over $19,000,000 were paid over the counter—thirteen times as much as last year. On one day last week, 1,750,000 were paid over the counter, and on each of several others over $1,000,000 more. The present demand was on account of two months pay of troops.

Miss Ella Poole of Wheeling was arrested some time since as a rebel informer, and while the officers were guarding the house, at night, she escaped by a back window. In consequence of this the mother and sisters were arrested as accessories.—Miss Poole has now been arreated at Louisville, and is on her way to Washington.

The estate of John A. Washington has been placed in charge of Commander Lee, of the United States Navy.

A drum is on exhibtion at Chicago captured from the rebels of Texas county, Mo. The shell of the drum was formely a gum tree bee-hive. The heads are raw hide, and the fastenings bed-cords, with strips from old boot legs, It is no doubt a fair rival of the serpent skin drum heads of the Aztecs.

ARREST OF A CLERGYMAN.—Great excitement was caused in Elkton, Md., on Sunday, by the arrest of Rev. Mr. Mitchell, pastor of the Episcopal church in that town. He was apprehended by a national officer just as he was about commencing the morning service. Secession sympathies injudicsously manifested were the causes of the arrest.

The Cincinnati Commercial says there are now at Camps Dennison, Gurley and Dick Corwine, all in the vicinity of that city, six thousand infantry, two thousand cavalry, and five batteries of field artillery.

GOOD FOR GOV. HICKS.—A special session of the legislature of Maryland is to be called by Gov. Hicks, to undo the rebel legislation of last spring, to enact a new police law, and to put the state full and square on the Union platform.

JUDGE DOUGLAS' FURNITURE.—The furniture of Judge Douglas will be sold at auction, in Washington, on the 18th inst., as his house, with those adjoining, has been rented for hospital purposes. Mrs. Douglass is still at Washington, residing with her father.

A COMPARISON.—T. W. Higginson, of Worcester, Mass. has certainly invented a new comparison. He says that it is as absurd to attempt to carry on the war without striking at slavery, as it would be to storm hell without interfering with the personal comfort of Satan.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Jayne's Ague Mixture
Is an infallible remedy for Fever and Ague. The experience of many years in almost every climate proves that where used strictly in accordance with the directions, it has rarely failed to cure,—not only by breaking up the chills, but by removing the morbid habits of the system, preventing a recurrence of the disease.
Fever and Ague, though not in itself dangerous, is apt, unless speedily removed, to have such a pernicious effect on the system, as to engender disorders much more baneful than itself, and which not only render the afterlife of the patient miserable, but are in themselves often fatal. A prompt and effectual remedy is therefore what is wanted, and as such DR. D. JAYNE'S AGUE MIXTURE is confidently recommended. For sale by G. R. CURTIS,
Janesville, Wis., and by agents everywhere.

We regret to lose Mr. Perkins; he had filled his place well, and made the Journal a good paper. BLANKETS.—Quartermaster Tredway has received notice of the shipment of 2,000 more blankets for the use of our troops.

WAUPACCA COUNTY.—This county gives Harvey 600 majority.

THE SIXTH WISCONSIN REGIMENT.—Captain A. G. Malloy, advertises for recruits for that regiment which is now encamped at Arlington Heights near Washington.

From the Tenth Regiment.

We have a letter from Geo. Hand, a private in company D of this regiment, giving an account of their journey from Milwaukee to their present place of encampment in Kentucky. The journey was pleasant. An accident occurred to a member of company D, who fell from the cars at Jeffersonville opposite Louisville, while unloading the baggage, and dislocated his shoulder. He is in the hospital at the latter place and is doing well.

The regiment was guarding a railroad bridge, on the 12th inst., at the cossing of the celebrated Salt river, in Bullitt county, Kentucky, fifteen miles from Louisville. Our correspondent says that the water of this river is as white as milk and although not good for drinking and cooking purposes, is better than the well water, which is impregnated with mineral substances, making it very unhealthy to those whose digestive organs have not been accustomed to it. Near them is a famous mineral spring, where, it is asserted that the old men of that region come and drink of its waters to renew their youth. It is to be hoped, if it has that virtue, that it will be changed in the mouths of traitors; giving them any thing but length of days. Within a mile and a half of the tenth, a part of a Kentucky regiment is encamped. "They are hard looking soldiers. A good many boys are among them, who look to be under fifteen years of age. They, however, stand camp life well, and seem to enjoy themselves. They are encamped in a grove of cedars, one of the handsomest places I have ever seen; the trees being tall and straight, are trimmed up about fifteen feet, forming a beautiful grove fragrant with resin, while it protects them from wind and sun. The most of the timber in this region, however, is beech and black walnut and the soil is much like that at Camp Holton, of a slimy and soapy character, when wet. We shall probably stay here at least a week. The consolidation of the Kentucky troops takes place in a few days, and we shall then know something more definite about our destination."

CASSEL'S ILLUSTRATED FAMILY BIBLE, No. 40, completing the old testament, has been received by Moseley & Bro., the agents for this county. They have now on hand all the numbers from the beginning. Subscribers are requested to call and complete their sets.

BOOKS FOR THE 13TH.—Thanks to Rev. G. A. Smith and several members of the M. E. Church of Milton, for books for the 13th. Also to Mr. Pullen for 40 books and 1,000 tracts; also to W. B. Hawes, Esq., for $5,00 worth of books—all for the same purpose. Let every family send us one or more. H. C. TILTON, Chaplain.

MILITARY ITEMS.—H. G. Webb reports the Tredway Pumas, at Wautoma, full to 87 men, and they are assigned to the 16th regiment.

Patrick Geraughty reports 40 men enlisted at Racine for the 17th or Irish regiment.

C. G. Pease, of Janesville, is commissioned surgeon of 2d cavalry.

General Tredway has received notice of the shipment by General Meigs, of four thousand regulation five pound blankets for the use of the Wisconsin troops. They are very much needed.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Eighth Regiment.

IN THE SWAMP, NEAR THE ARKANSAS LINE, MISSOURI, November 10th, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We are on a big tramp after Jeff. Thompson. We have now been marching six days in the hardest looking country that I ever expected to see. We traveled 70 miles without finding a piece of cleared land large enough to draw up the 8th in line of battle, with the thermometer most of the time from 70 to 80 degrees. A great many men gave out on the march. The first two or three days we had two Illinois regiments of infantry, five battalions of Indiana cavalry, one battery of guns, the 8th Wisconsin, which is called here "The Live Eagle Regiment," 110 army wagons, which are drawn with 800 mules, and one regiment of Missouri cavalry—the whole reaching about three miles. All we want now is to meet Mr. Thompson with his forces, and we will have a happy old time down here in the land of persimmons and frost grapes. We are encamped to-day (Sunday) after marching about five hours, in a small field belonging to an ignorant old man, who professes to be a Union man; but nary a Union man lives here. Jeff. has taken all there is in this part of the country for his crowd, and given southern scrip for pay. We have hard work to get enough to keep our teams with; but all we do get our quartermaster pays for. So I think our visit will have a good effect here, if we should not meet Jeff. at all. By what I can find out, I think there is a large force coming from Cairo and Bird's Point to meet us down here somewhere, and I think we will have the rebels in a cage—if they stand up to the rack. The boys are crazy to have a fight; they are tired of carrying their ammunition and want to get clear of it. God only knows how we will get out of this dismal swamp; it is day and night over mountains and through swamps, fording rivers, &c.; bridges are unknown here.

If you have any missionaries in Wisconsin, send them down here instead of India, for a more ignorant and heathenish set of people I never saw. School houses are unknown. I heard Major Jefferson ask a woman if she had any newspapers. She said she reckoned not. He asked her if they never had any papers. She said they borrowed one last August of one of their neighbors about five miles off. Five miles off makes near neighbors here. If we were to find a house every five miles, we would think we were in a civilized country. If this was the only country we were fighting for, you would see me in Janesville about as soon as I could walk to a station and ride there. We passed one house south of Greenville that displayed the stars and stripes, and it cheered the boys, and the boys cheered it with a will. It looked liked home to us.

Our men are very much dissatisfied about Fremont being removed. We first heard of it this morning by our sutler, who followed us from the Knob. Our cavalry is out scouting, and I suppose we will stop here until they return. Charley Riker is sitting in my door cracking walnuts; there are thousands of them here. Kane and Conroy have just brought in some chickens. Hank Sargent is killing an ox, and I suppose we are going to have something to eat after living for six days on crackers that the men have to break up with a mallet before they can swallow them. King is cooking the tongue that came from the beef, and I expect a good supper to-night. Doty is sick, but I think we will take him with us. We left about 20 of our men at the Knob, about ten of whom were sick, and the rest could not be found when we left.

The men's feet are now getting hard, and I think we are good for anything now. I have seen the blood run out of many of the men's feet, but they stood it well. Lieut. Stephens, of Co. B, died last night of typhoid fever; he was very much liked, and his loss is lamented by all. Our sick are mostly attacked with measles, and I think will soon be well. We have several prisoners and any quantity of contraband horses. Jim. Croft bought some corn dodgers yesterday, and gave the girl 50 cents. It would have made you laugh to see her eyes stick out; she never saw 50 cents before. It is a show for the people here to see the troops pass; they never saw so many men before.

You can talk about service, but the 8th has seen more hard service than all the rest of the Wisconsin regiments put together.—If the armies of the Potomac had moved as we have, secession would have been at a discount long before this.

I am sitting on the ground, writing on my knee. John White is all right to-day, and is good for the fight. How this letter will reach you I cannot tell—we are some 70 or 80 miles from any regular postoffice.

W. B. BRITTON,
Co. G, 8th Reg't, W. V.

P. S. — The friends of members of the company will direct to Pilot Knob until further notice. W. B. B.

AGENCY FOR NATIONAL LOAN.

PURSUANT to instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, a book will be opened on the twentieth day of November, 1861, at my office, in Janesville, for subscriptions under my superintendence for Treasury Notes, to be issued under the act of July 17, 1861. These notes will be issued in sums of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, and five thousand dollars each, dated 19th August, 1861, payable three years after date to the order of the subscriber or as directed, and bearing interest at the rate of 7 3-10 per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually; such interest being at the rate of two cents each day on every hundred dollars. For the convenience of the holder, each note will have coupons attached expressing the several amounts of semi-annual interest, which coupons may be detached and presented for payment separately from the notes.

Subscriptions for such Treasury Notes will be received during fifteen days from the day of opening the book as aforesaid and afterwards. No subscription for less than fifty dollars nor for any fraction of that sum can be received. Subscriptions of fifty dollars or one hundred dollars must be paid in lawful coin of the United States at the time of subscribing. Subscriptions of more than one hundred dollars may be paid at once; or, if preferred, one tenth at the time of subscribing and one-third of the whole amount on every twentieth day thereafter until the whole shall be paid. No payment of less than fifty dollars can be accepted, that being the smallest sum for which Treasury Notes can be issued.

Certificates will be granted in duplicate to subscribers for the amounts so paid, the original of which the subscriber will transmit by mail to the Secretary of the Treasury, when Treasury Notes, as aforesaid, will be issued thereon to such subscriber or his order, carrying interest as expressed in such certificate; but in cases where only a part of the amount subscribed is paid at the time of subscribing, Treasury Notes will be issued only for the payments made subsequently to the first, which will remain until the whole amount subscribed by such person shall be paid, when Treasury Notes will be issued for such first payment also. On payment of each deferred instalment, the subscriber will pay, in addition thereto, a sum equal to the interest accrued thereon from the 19th of August to the date of payment, and on final payment like interest on the amount paid on subscription, which payments of interest will be reimbursed to the subscriber in the payment of the first coupon.

The Treasury Notes issued upon such certificates by the Treasury will be sent to the subscribers my mail, or such other mode as may be indicated by them when they transmit their original certificates. The duplicate certificates may be retained by them for their own security.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000
all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.
